Organised Labour and Political Development in Nigeria Daniel A. Offiong, 1983      Politics and Identity Formation in Southeastern Nigeria Apollos O. Nwauwa, Ogechi E. Anyanwu, 2019-05-20 Scholarly studies on the Igbo have been scant and fragmented Politics and Identity Formation in Southeastern Nigeria The Igbo in Perspective fills an obvious gap exploring the social cultural economic political and aesthetic traditions that distinguish the Igbo of southeastern Nigeria from their neighbors In scope content and analysis this book is both multi and cross disciplinary focusing on the experiences and forces that have shaped the Igbo society identity formation and sociocultural political and aesthetic representations Themes such as the importance of Igbo names in understanding the people's social linguistic religious gender and cultural identities as well as the intersection of language politics socialization education and aesthetic expression in the Igbo experience in Nigeria are interrogated in a refreshing fashion with an appreciable level of originality      Basics of Nigerian Labour Relations Dafe

Otobo, 2025-03-19 The main attempt here is to provide a ready and comprehensive source at one glance of the essential twists and turns since the 1890s of attempts by critical socio political and economic actors in what has become Nigeria to secure promote and protect respective interests especially in determining pattern and quantum of remuneration at work These events and activities cover early colonial period post World War I and II colonial labour relations the First Republic the military regimes post military dictatorships period till recently      Essentials of Labour Relations in Nigeria: Volume 2 Otobo, Dafe, 2016-11-25 Combined together in three volumes are the author's writings on labour and employment relations in Nigeria spanning over three and a half decades Volume two covers the Nigerian industry specific employment relations comparative labour relations and cross cutting African development issues      Politics And Economic Development In Nigeria Tom Forrest, 2019-07-12 This text provides an account of the dynamic interplay between the political and economic forces that have shaped government priorities and strategies in Africa's most populous country The author examines efforts to build a stronger federal centre to develop national policies to counter uneven development and to reduce conflicts that have arisen from ethnic regional class and religious differences A final section analyzes the evolution of economic policy and performance looking specifically at agrarian policy the programme of economic liberalization and the impact of oil revenues

Essentials of Labour Relations in Nigeria: Volume 2 Dafe Otobo, 2016-10-25 Combined together in three volumes are the author's writings on labour and employment relations in Nigeria spanning over three and a half decades Volume two covers the Nigerian industry specific employment relations comparative labour relations and cross cutting African development issues      Identity Transformation and Identity Politics Under Structural Adjustment in Nigeria Attahiru Jega, 2000

DOES IT MATTER Jimi O Adesina      Voice and Power in Africa's Democracy Said Adejumo, 2017-08-16 Africa has made notable progress in its nascent democracy but with uneven performance across countries However across the board challenges abound Central to Africa's checkered democratic narrative is the weakness of its democratic institutions

participatory mechanisms and accountability platforms This book interrogates these elements with the role and capacity of the parliament political parties media freedom of information law trade union movements gender empowerment mechanisms and accountability methods and processes all under examination The weakness of democratic institutions has had a corrosive effect on political accountability and limits the scope for popular participation in governance In many countries innovative practices and new social and political encounters are emerging that challenge old institutional cultures promote reforms and demand accountability from the governing elite The book captures these varied innovative patterns of democratic change With first hand knowledge and expertise of the continent the contributors analyze the issues trends problems and challenges in these critical areas of Africa s democratic growth The conclusion is that strengthening democratic institutions opening up the political space for enhanced political participation and ensuring political accountability will determine the course prospects and quality of Africa s budding democracy

Reforms and Nigerian Labour and Employment Relations Dafe Ootobo,2016-07-25 This collections of papers from twenty seven chapters is on aspects of reforms and labour and employment relations in Nigeria over the past three decades

Globalisation and Africa Daniel A. Offiong,2013 Globalisation is often conceptualised as a triumphant juggernaut a massive inexorable force transforming economies politics and culture and inevitably vanquishing endemic poverty in poor countries This is in line with what modernisation theorists envisaged in the 1950s and 1960s Unfortunately globalisation just like modernisation has failed Africa Globalisation has intensified poverty and underdevelopment and the consequences are reflected in the huge debt burden of most Third World countries Globalisation and Africa Reverse Robin Hoodism calls for a new international economic order in which Africa and other Third World countries will participate as interdependent entities and by so doing end the symmetric relationship in which the wealthy countries enjoy huge advantages financial economic and others over poor countries

Encountering the Nigerian State W. Adebani, E. Obadare,2010-07-05 This volume advances extant reflections on the state constituted as the Ur Power in society particularly in Africa It analyzes how various agents within the Nigerian society encounter the state ranging from the most routine form of contact to the spectacular While many recent collections have reheated the old paradigms of the perils of federalism corruption ethnicity etc our focus here is on encounter that is the nuance and complexity of how the state shapes society and vice versa Through this we depart from the standard state versus society approach that proves so limiting in explaining the African political landscape

Government and Politics in Africa Okwudibia Nnoli,2000

The Politics of Neoliberal Democracy in Africa Usman A. Tar,2008-10-30 Since the late 1980s the changing dynamic of global development has driven the tide of democratic expansion in the developing world In Africa western donors have sought to impose neo liberal visions of socio economic and political institution building spreading political reforms and economic liberalisation with far reaching consequences Associated with external interventions but also sometimes conflicting with them are internal protests against authoritarianism which have problematically reinforced and or undermined the donor agenda for democratic reform Here Usman Tar questions the assumption that Africa was lacking the essential components for a spontaneous transition to democracy He explores the dynamic but contradictory links between external and internal dimensions of neo liberal democratic expansion in Africa focusing on Nigeria Tar dissects the struggles for democracy and for democratic policy and practice in a country with rich economic potential but a troubled political dispensation The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics A. Carl LeVan, Patrick Ukata, 2018-10-18 The Oxford Handbook of Nigerian Politics offers a comprehensive analysis of Nigeria's very rich history and ever changing politics to its readers It provides a deep understanding of Nigeria's socio political evolution and experience by covering broad range of political issues and historical eras The volume encompasses 44 chapters organized thematically into essays covering history political institutions civil society economic and social policy identity and insecurity and Nigeria in a globalized world By identifying many of the classic debates in Nigerian politics the chapters serve as an authoritative introduction to Africa's most populous country The chapters are interdisciplinary introducing readers to classic debates and key research on Nigeria as well as new methodologies new data and a compelling corpus of research questions for the next generation of researchers and readers interested in Africa Labour and Politics in Nigeria Robin Cohen, 2024-03-08 Originally published in 1974 and with a new introduction for the 1981 edition this book is a clear and vivid history of the role of organized labour in the politics of Nigeria It covers the period from the first General Strike of 1945 to the civil war and reintegration of the country As well as providing an analysis of the characteristics and attitudes of Nigeria's wage earners this study is concerned with their place in the wider political and social life of the country The attempts of the trade unions to create a representative central labour organisation are considered as is the internal structure of the unions themselves The book also examines the relationship of the Unions with the political parties of the first Republic and later with the Military Government The influence of the trade unions in the determination of wage rates is analysed The book concludes with an overview of trade unions in other parts of Africa with which the performance and characteristics of organized labour in Nigeria are compared Directory of European political scientists European Consortium for Political Research, University of Essex. Compiled and ed. by the Central Services of the ECPR, 2016-11-07 No detailed description available for Directory of European political scientists Nigeria at Fifty Ebenezer Obadare, Wale Adebani, 2013-09-13 Nigeria Africa's most populous and biggest democracy celebrates her fiftieth year as an independent nation in October 2010 As the cliché states As Nigeria goes so goes Africa This book frames the socio historical and political trajectory of Nigeria while examining the many dimensions of the critical choices that she has made as an independent nation How does the social composition of interest and power illuminate the actualities and narratives of the Nigerian crisis How have the choices made by Nigerian leaders structured and or have been structured by the character of the Nigerian state and state society relations In what ways is Nigeria's mono product debt ridden dependent economy fed by the politics of plunder And what are the implications of these questions for the structural relationships of production reproduction and consumption This book confronts these questions by making state centric approaches to understanding African countries speak to relevant social theories that pluralize and complicate our understanding of the specific challenges of a prototypical postcolonial state This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies

Directory of Nigerian Book Development Vincent Chukwuemeka Ike,1998      Structural Adjustment and the Working Poor in Zimbabwe Peter Gibbon,1995 Presents three studies which examine the relationship between structural adjustment and changes in the social conditions of the working poor in Zimbabwe between 1990 and 1994 Includes a survey of conditions faced by formal sector workers in 18 larger scale industrial companies in 1993 a survey of the trading patterns consumption and intra and interhousehold relationships of 174 urban women traders in 1992 and 1993 and a study of changes in health and health services among 327 urban households and 300 households in a peasant farming area in 1992
