Overman, 2019-02-11 Sports Crazy How Sports Are Sabotaging American Schools exposes the excesses of middle and high school sports and the detrimental effects our sports obsession has on American education Institutions are increasingly emulating college and professional sports models and losing sight of a host of educational and health goals Steven J Overman describes how this agenda is driven largely by partisan fans and parents of athletes who exert an inordinate influence on school priorities and he explains how and why school administrators shockingly and consistently capitulate to these demands The author underscores the incongruity of public schools involved in an entertainment business and the effects this diversion has on academic integrity learning life experience and overall educational outcomes Overman examines out of control school sports within the context of a school s educational mission and curriculum with telling reference to impacts on physical education He explores as well the outsized place of interscholastic sports beyond the classroom and scrutinizes the distorted relationship between intramural or recreational sports and elitist varsity athletics Overman s chapter on tackle football explains many reasons why this sport should be eliminated from the school extracurriculum and replaced by flag or touch football Overman presents a brief history of interscholastic sports and he compares and contrasts the American experience of school sponsored sport to the European model of community based clubs Which approach better serves students Overman recommends reforms in the context of a radical proposal to phase out interscholastic sports in favor of an intramural or club model This approach would alleviate such problems as elitism and gender bias and reign in hypercompetitiveness while freeing schools to educate students rather than provide public entertainment In the Wind Ron Peterson Jr,2024-07-30 In 1981 detective Kay Schucker was the lead investigator in the high profile missing persons case of Old Dominion University student Janice Starr The beautiful coed disappeared without a trace from ODU s Norfolk Virginia campus Among the only leads was Janice s diary which included detailed journal entries about her daily activities As Kay studied the diary going several years back she learned that Janice a US Army veteran had faced the same challenges in the military that Kay did in law enforcement They were both women trying to succeed in a man s world Feeling a kinship toward Janice Kay became consumed with unraveling the mystery of Janice s disappearance and possible death As the investigation unfolded Kay began to suspect that Janice had an affair with her ROTC professor at ODU Army captain Dwight Beddingfield a well respected family man married with three kids Kay was warned by superiors to tread lightly in her investigation of Beddingfield and cautioned not to dig too deeply But she soon uncovered a life insurance scheme and discovered that Janice had been assigned a series of dangerous tasks by Captain Beddingfield Did these circumstances play a role in Janice s demise Was the highly regarded Beddingfield actually a killer If so what did he do with Janice s remains Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003
