Authorship in Nabokov's Prefaces Jacqueline Hamrit,2015-01-12 Whereas literary criticism has mainly oscillated between the death of the author Barthes and the return of the author Couturier this work suggests another perspective on authorship through an analysis of Nabokov's prefaces It is here argued that the author being neither dead nor tyrannical alternates between authoritative apparitions and receding disappearances in the double gesture of mastery without mastery which Derrida calls exappropriation that is a simultaneous attempt to appropriate one's work control it have it under one's power and expropriate it losing control by loosening one's grip The intention of this is to approach through one's experience of reading and interpreting the experience of self effacement and impersonality pertaining to writing cf Blanchot Prefaces are considered to be suitable places for the deconstruction of the classical image of Nabokov's arrogance through the unearthing of his reserve and vulnerability This work provides an account of the mere intuition which therefore does not pretend to be a conclusive and definitive interpretation of another image of Nabokov whose undeniable talent for deception seems in accordance with a need for discretion and secrecy
