Davenport, 2003-09-22 Values - Politics - Religion: The European Values Study Regina Polak, Patrick Rohs, 2023-07-18 This open access book analyses the international data of the European Values Study (EVS) 1990-2017 with a focus on the impact of religion on political values from empirical as well as theoretical perspectives, i.e. sociology, political and cultural studies, philosophy, ethics, theology, and the law. It interprets results from interdisciplinary perspectives, including the viewpoints of social ethics, sociology, and cultural studies, law, and practical theology. In the political and public as well as media debates of the European Union, the recourse to above all European and also Christian values has played a central and controversial role in the field of politics and religion for several decades. This collection is a contribution to a qualified discourse on values in Europe by providing empirical, hermeneutical, and ethical criteria for a responsible use of the concept of values. In addition to a comparison of political value systems in Western and Eastern Europe and the possible role of religion in this context, the book also deals with topics such as solidarity, economics, and values, value formation, and law and values. Additionally, specific population groups such as the socio-culturally marginalized strata are examined more closely. Besides current scientific analyses and interpretations of interest to researchers from various disciplines, this book also offers valuable impulses and suggestions for various multipliers in political civil society and religious organisations, as well as a sound overview for graduate students.
