Coercion as Cure Frank Villafana, 2017-07-12 Understanding the history of psychiatry requires an accurate view of its function and purpose In this provocative new study Szasz challenges conventional beliefs about psychiatry He asserts that in fact psychiatrists are not concerned with the diagnosis and treatment of bona fide illnesses Psychiatric tradition social expectation and the law make it clear that coercion is the profession's determining characteristic Psychiatrists may diagnose or treat people without their consent or even against their clearly expressed wishes and these involuntary psychiatric interventions are as different as are sexual relations between consenting adults and the sexual violence we call rape But the point is not merely the difference between coerced and consensual psychiatry but to contrast them The term psychiatry ought to be applied to one or the other but not both As long as psychiatrists and society refuse to recognize this there can be no real psychiatric historiography The coercive character of psychiatry was more apparent in the past than it is now Then insanity was synonymous with unfitness for liberty Toward the end of the nineteenth century a new type of psychiatric relationship developed when people experiencing so called nervous symptoms sought help This led to a distinction between two kinds of mental diseases neuroses and psychoses Persons who complained about their own behavior were classified as neurotic whereas persons about whose behavior others complained were classified as psychotic The legal medical psychiatric and social denial of this simple distinction and its far reaching implications undergirds the house of cards that is modern psychiatry Coercion as Cure is the most important book by Szasz since his landmark The Myth of Mental Illness

Williams, 2011-08-19 School buildings in Maryland Washington D C New York Boston Chicago South Carolina and throughout America that have chipping peeling and flaking lead based paint on the interior and exterior are exposing our children and others to lead poisoning Having renovations performed on these already lead hazardous schools without implementing the proper protective protocols to prevent millions of more microscopic lead dust particles from spreading only compounds the exposure to lead poisoning Moreover if these same lead hazardous school buildings also have their water supply flowing through leaded pipes pipes that are connected with lead solder or have leaded fixtures attached to the fountains then our leaders of tomorrow and others are ingesting even more lead poisoning through drinking lead tainted water This non fiction book documents the truth that a Mathematics teacher who has maintained her certification and accreditation in lead hazard evaluation and control since 1997 as a Repainting and Maintenance Supervisor an Inspector Technician a Lead Abatement Service Contractor and thus a Recognized Lead Expert by the Maryland Department of the Environment identified four schools in Baltimore City that had either deteriorating chipping and flaking lead based paint major renovations that disturbed lead hazardous components and didnt have the proper protective protocols in place or drinking water that was lead contaminated She attempted on numerous occasions to have the health hazards addressed and resolved However the powers that be only wanted to silence her and continue concealing the truth that for over a decade the custodians of these public schools the owners and others knowingly willingly and negligently exposed lives to lead poisoning Moreover the detailed documented true findings from five Finders of Fact that substantiate that the powers that be retaliated against the messenger because she blew the whistle regarding the lead hazardous in these Baltimore City schools

Remembering the Times of Our Lives Patricia J. Bauer,2014-01-14 The purpose of Remembering the Times of Our Lives Memory in Infancy and Beyond is to trace the development from infancy through adulthood in the capacity to form retain and later retrieve autobiographical or personal memories It is appropriate for scholars and researchers in the fields of cognitive psychology memory infancy and human development Ends and Odds Samuel Beckett,1976 A collection of one act plays Management and the Dominance of Managers Thomas Diefenbach,2009-05-22 Managers are powerful The organizations of our time are in essence managerial organizations even our societies are managerial societies This book looks behind the portrait of management as value free technicality and challenges the image of managers as the selfless pursuer of an organization s survival and development It explains that individual interests and careers of managers are only part of a wider epochal and historic picture the picture of managers as the new ruling class using and misusing organizations for their own personal and group interests while portraying their own roles and actions as increasing the efficiency of organizations and serving the public interest But why exactly are managers so powerful Why and how do managers dominate our organizations It will be argued that the prevailing understanding of management and managers is only at the surface about functional aspects In its very core management has been and is all about the power and control interests and ideology of managers in short the dominance of managers over other groups of people In order to investigate and explain this dominance a multi dimensional theory of social dominance of managers will be developed which reveals the personal and group interests behind such claims and is based in its core on three explanatory factors power interests and ideology These factors themselves will be analyzed as comprehensive multi dimensional and interdisciplinary concepts in order to address the complex nature of managers dominance appropriately A Call to Heroism Peter H. Gibbon,2007-12-01 An engaging and provocative exploration of American history s heroic figures from how we define a hero to the monuments we build to honor them Arthur Schlesinger Jr Heroic ideals are fundamental to the enterprise of American liberty and to the fabric of our nation s culture Throughout history men and women such as George Washington Thomas Edison Martin Luther King Jr and Lucretia Mott have brought together our society of dreamers and achievers In A Call to Heroism Harvard research associate Peter H Gibbon surveys the lives struggles and accomplishments of these and other great individuals It also considers the meaning of seven monuments and artworks dedicated to heroes examining what these memorials say about the America of their time and what they mean for us today The result forges an enlightening understanding of what it means to be a hero With a foreword by Peter J Gomes Fascinating and inspiring Gibbon s book emphasizes the importance of guiding young people to more realistic definitions of hero The Christian Science Monitor A concise history of the hero in America and a realistic formula for determining who deserves the accolade The Tampa Tribune This book is a delightful Grand Tour taking us from war to sports to great literature You will enjoy it Jay Mathews The Washington Post Lively fare for classrooms and board rooms throughout the country Arthur Schlesinger Jr Technology and Its Impact on Educational Leadership: Innovation and Change Wang, Viktor,2012-01-31 Educational leadership draws upon interdisciplinary literature but distinguishes itself through its focus on pedagogy epistemology and human development As a field of study it has prescribed pertinent philosophies and practices and has specified specific roles for school administrators and teachers Technology and Its Impact on Educational Leadership Innovation and Change covers not only K 12 and higher education leadership but also the relationship between Web 2 0 technologies and educational leadership Contributions within this book discuss chronic issues in the study of to technology and its impact on educational leadership that have perplexed educational establishments This work promotes learning and further research for professors scholars researchers and graduate students involved in educational leadership and related fields
