Enright,2024-05-01 In the third novel of this charming children s series the Melendy family take the plunge into country life moving from NYC into a most unusual home The Melendy family have just moved into an odd looking house with a confused architectural history what you might call a Four Story Mistake The four children their father and their housekeeper are all disappointed to leave their old brownstone in New York City They re also apprehensive about living the country life But the Melendy kids soon discover the many hidden attractions of the Four Story Mistake And with their accustomed resourcefulness they find themselves getting absorbed in new kinds of adventures The Wheel of Fate: Brian Mead's Ghost

Benny Alano,2012-03-23 Randy Miller loves Halloween just like every other sixth grader at Rosemary Middle School He loves dressing up in costumes with his three best friends and playing practical jokes on his younger sister Missy But Randy s life changes when he sees something strange one creepy night the bluish white figure of a boy who points accusingly at Randy To make matters worse Mrs Rosenberg Randy s homeroom teacher tells her class that this Halloween is the ten year death anniversary of a young boy named Brian Mead Randy realizes that the figure he saw must be the ghost of Brian Mead Randy also knows he s got a real problem on his hands As Halloween approaches the ghost gets scarier haunting Randy more and more But Randy doesn t want to live in fear Putting the ghost of Brian Mead behind him Randy takes his friends to trick or treat at a mysterious neighbor s house The neighbor Miss Donna is an old carnival worker who still keeps a Wheel of Fate as a souvenir of her days as a fortune teller When Randy spins the Wheel of Fate as a Halloween party game all hell breaks loose and the kids discover the real reason the ghost is coming after Randy Intertwined Rebecca Kormos,2024-04-30

Winner of the Studs and Ida Terkel Prize A powerful argument that greater inclusion of women in conservation and climate science is key to the future of the planet Women are disproportionately impacted by climate change floods droughts and extreme temperatures overwhelmingly affect women in the short and long term In some cases women make up almost 90 percent of casualties during dangerous climate events and the majority of those displaced in the aftermath are women Despite this disparity women are underrepresented at every level of decision making about the future of our planet only 24 percent of CEOs in nonprofit conservation and around one third of the representatives in national and global climate negotiating bodies have been women In Intertwined writer and wildlife biologist Rebecca Kormos elevates the voices of women working to prevent the climate crisis weaving together their stories to make a powerful case for why women are essential to changing our current trajectory toward catastrophic global warming and environmental degradation Kormos argues that empowering women is one of the most important solutions to climate change and biodiversity loss women s leadership and equal representation is linked to lower CO2 emissions better forest management better land protection less land grabbing and fewer conflicts over resources For readers of All We Can Save and Braiding Sweetgrass Kormos joins the ranks of recent breakthrough efforts to showcase women s voices in the movement to combat climate change Kormos takes this endeavor one step further with a global intersectional narrative of how women and gender nonconforming individuals are doing the crucial work at the local and national levels to reframe how we think about environmental activism Ultimately Intertwined proves that climate justice is inextricable from gender equality Haunted Heather Graham,2018-07-16 New
