Smith, W. Ackah, A. Reddie, 2014-06-18 This volume assesses contemporary church responses to multicultural diversity and resisted categories of social difference with a central focus on whether or how racial ethnic religious sexual and gender differences are validated by churches and especially black churches torn between competing inclusive and exclusive tendencies Old School Rap and Hip-hop Chris Woodstra, John Bush, Stephen Thomas Erlewine, 2008-02 Contains brief reviews of over five hundred old school rap and hip hop albums as well as albums from the 1960s and 70s that provided inspiration for the development of rap arranged alphabetically some with cover art The Media War on Black Male Youth in Urban Education Darius Prier, 2017-03-27 News media film and the music industry have become powerful sources of misrepresentation of Black male life in the social imagination of white society The pedagogy of popular culture has important implications for educators and youth advocates who desire to challenge the myths and distortions that ultimately harm youth This volume raises awareness of the media war on Black male youth in popular culture and the impact this image battle has on the discriminatory treatment of the population in urban educational settings Citing the recent controversial deaths of Trayvon Martin and Jordan Davis the portrayal of black males in contemporary films and the locus of hip hop masculinities this volume offers a unique framework for analyzing how contemporary image making practices affect Black male youth in urban education It also offers ethical considerations for educators in their critique consumption and reading of Black male subjectivity in media and provides avenues for practical applications of critical media literacy on the ground

Integration Matters C. P. Gause,2008 The United States is more racially culturally and linguistically diverse now than at any given point in its history Urbanization and immigration are key contributors to population growth and shifts particularly in the southeastern part of the country Educators are scrambling to determine how best to serve different demographics and many families in new places are trying to adjust to unfamiliar school systems For all concerned this period of adjustment is marked by significant personal curricular and institutional development However one group of individuals has not maintained pace with the rest African American males continue to lag behind their counterparts in every measured educational variable as outlined by the No Child Left Behind legislation despite the educational social and economic changes of the past fifty years since the 1954 landmark Brown vs Board of Education decision This book beyond providing educators parents and students with a critique of present day educational experiences for those who are the other in America particularly the black male conceptually integrates queer legal theory the tenets of critical spirituality and notions of collaborative activism to construct a blueprint for realizing academic achievement and academic success for all students
