Rapid Situation Assessment Of Drug Abuse In Maldives:

Rapid Situation Assessment of Drug Abuse in Maldives United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, 2003 The Maldives has made considerable economic progress in recent decades securing a position amongst middle income nations in the developing world However such development has brought with it a number of sociocultural problems including a rise in drug abuse which reflects the patterns of drug abuse and trafficking in the region This report sets out the results of an assessment a rapid situation assessment RSA using qualitative and quantitative methods undertaken to examine the prevalence of drug use the types of drugs used and the social characteristics of drug users in the Maldives Routledge Handbook of South Asian Criminology K. Jaishankar, 2019-08-01 Although the literature and cultural practices of the South Asian region demonstrate a rich understanding of criminology this handbook is the first to focus on crime criminal justice and victimization in Afghanistan Bangladesh Bhutan India Maldives Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka South Asia's rapid growth in population and economy continues to introduce transformations in social behaviors including those related to criminality and victimization Readers of this handbook will gain a comprehensive look at criminology criminal justice and victimology in the South Asian region including processes historical perspectives politics policies and victimization This collection of chapters penned by scholars from all eight of the South Asian nations as well as the US UK Australia and Belgium will advance the study and practice of criminology in the South Asian region and carry implications for other regions The Routledge Handbook of South Asian Criminology provides a wealth of information on criminological issues and their effect on the countries and governments efforts to mitigate them It is essential reading for students and scholars of South Asian criminology criminal justice and politics

Drugs in Afghanistan David Macdonald, 2007-01-20 Afghanistan is seen as a major drug producer but its own people are becoming the victims David Macdonald not only explores the reasons for this but also tells an addictive tale that is difficult to resist Shirazuddin Siddiqi BBC This stunning book provides a first hand account of the Afghan drug problem David Macdonald has written the definitive text on drugs in Afghanistan Professor Gerry Stimson Executive Director International Harm Reduction Association David Macdonald tells a story about the diversity of drug use in Afghanistan that no one has ever told before Ethan Nadelmann Executive Director Drug Policy Alliance New York Afghanistan is the world's largest producer of opium and heroin This book explores the devastating impact that the drugs trade has had on the Afghan people Author David Macdonald has worked as a drugs advisor to the UN Based on his extensive experience this book breaks down the myths surrounding the cultivation and consumption of drugs providing a detailed analysis of the history of drug use within the country He examines the impact of over 25 years of continuous conflict and shows how poverty and instability has led to an increase in drugs consumption He also considers the recent rise in the use of pharmaceutical drugs resulting in dangerous chemical cocktails and analyses the effect of Afghanistan's drug trade on neighbouring countries

domestic violence in Asia Based on extensive original research in the Maldives it argues that forces of globalisation consumerism Islamism and democratisation are changing the nature of domestic relations with shifting ideas surrounding gender and Islam being particularly significant The book points out that domestic violence has been relatively low in the Maldives in comparison with other Asian countries as a result of the book argues a history of relatively equal gender relations an ideology of masculinity that is associated with calmness and rationality where violence is not considered an acceptable means of dealing with problems and flexible marriage and divorce practices The book shows how these factors are being undermined by new ideas which emphasise the need for wifely obedience increasing gender inequality and the right of husbands to be coercive

Understanding Gender in Maldives Jana El-Horr, Rohini Prabha Pande, 2016-05-16 Within the past decade the Maldives moved from poverty to middle income status introduced democracy and was hailed as a Millennium Development Goal Plus country Women face little discrimination in basic aspects of life such as primary education health and survival unlike in much of South Asia This economic and social progress has yet to be fully inclusive however and gender inequality endures despite constitutional guarantees to the contrary This is at least partly due to a shift in the nature of Islamic practice in the Maldives towards more rigidly patriarchal interpretations Women s labor force participation is high but limited to lower echelons of the economy Women are slightly more likely than men to be unemployed Despite gender equal primary schooling girls access to tertiary and professional education is hampered by beliefs about girls and women s mobility and primacy of household roles over others Within the home women face challenges that men do not such as high risks of domestic violence and little control over household assets Finally women have limited presence in politics and governance Men struggle with different gendered situations Unemployment is high among young men who also increasingly are alienated from society and family This alienation combined with a lack of strong alternative social structures to replace the breakdown of traditional family structures that has accompanied Maldives development trajectory appear to be propelling young men towards greater social conservatism participation in gangs drug use and violence Nonetheless women are more disadvantaged in more realms of life than are men Moreover public support for gender equality and women s rights appears to be declining These developments are worrying for the future of gender equality in the Maldives as well as for a more inclusive development model that would offer opportunities to both men and women

Current Perspectives on Substance Use Disorders in South Asia S. M. Yasir Arafat, Sujita Kumar Kar, 2024-11-25 This book is about public mental health needs and aspects of substance use disorders in South Asian countries South Asia consists of eight countries with low and middle income backgrounds The people of this region with a combined population of around 2 billion share common cultures beliefs and behavioral patterns regarding physical and mental health Among them more than 66 million people use different forms of substances including cannabis opium and opiates amphetamine and prescription drugs Substance abuse brings deadly consequences It affects almost all spheres of life i e personal social recreational criminal and family aspects both physical and mental health and economy of the society as well as the country Advanced management and holistic prevention are public health priorities However very little attention has been paid to the issues as a region as well as in countries like Afghanistan Bangladesh and Pakistan Hence the editors of this book aimed to publish a book that discusses the public mental health and healthcare issues related to substance use disorder in a densely populated low and middle income setting Yearbook of the United Nations United Nations,1947 Issue for 1946 47 includes a summary of the organization s activities from its inception to July 1 1947
