Marcus,2000-04-15 Para Sites the penultimate volume in the Late Editions series explores how social actors located within centers of power and privilege develop and express a critical consciousness of their own situations Departing from the usual focus of ethnography and cultural analysis on the socially marginalized these pieces probe subjects who are undeniably complicit with powerful institutional engines of contemporary change In each case the possibility of alternative thinking or practices is in complex relation to the subject s source of empowerment These cases challenge the condition of cynicism that has been the favored mode of characterizing the mind set of intellectuals and professionals comfortable in their lives of middle class consumption and work In their effort to establish para sites of critical awareness parallel to the levels of political and economic power at which they function these subjects suggest that those who lead ordinary lives of modest power and privilege might not be parasites in relation to the systems they serve but may be creating unique and independent critical perspectives Artbibliographies Modern ,1995 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Kate Craig Kate Craig,Grant Arnold,Nicole Gingras,Brice Canyon,1998 Contemporary Canadian Artists ,1997 Return to Brutopia Eric Metcalfe,Peggy Gale,Scott Watson,University of British Columbia. Fine Arts Gallery,1992-01-01 Engendering an avant-garde Leah Modigliani,2018-04-06 Engendering an avant garde is the first book to comprehensively examine the origins of Vancouver photo conceptualism in its regional context between 1968 and 1990 Employing discourse analysis of texts written by and about artists feminist critique and settler colonial theory the book discusses the historical transition from artists creation of defeatured landscapes between 1968 71 to their cinematographic photographs of the late 1970s and the backlash against such work by other artists in the late 1980s It is the first study to provide a structural account for why the group remains all male It accomplishes this by demonstrating that the importation of a European discourse of avant garde activity which assumed masculine social privilege and public activity effectively excluded women artists from membership C Magazine ,1992
