Return To Malaya:

Return to Malaya Robert Hamilton Bruce Lockhart, 1936      Return to Malaya Rh Bruce Lockhart, 2023-07-18 After serving as the British High Commissioner in Malaya during the 1930s R H Bruce Lockhart returned to the region in the years following World War II to witness the dramatic changes that had taken place His memoir offers a vivid account of the political and social upheaval that marked this period of history from the Malayan Emergency to the struggle for independence from colonial rule With a keen eye for detail and a deep appreciation for the region's culture Lockhart paints a compelling portrait of a nation in flux This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant      Colony, Nation, and Globalisation Eddie Tay, 2010-06-01 The literature of Malaysia and Singapore the multicultural epicentre of Asia offers a rich body of source material for appreciating the intellectual heritage of colonial and postcolonial Southeast Asia Focusing on themes of home and belonging Eddie Tay illuminates many aspects of identity anxiety experienced in the region and helps construct a dialogue between postcolonial theory and the Anglophone literatures of Singapore and Malaysia A chronologically ordered selection of texts is examined including Swettenham Bird Maugham Burgess and Thumboo This genealogy of works includes colonial travel writings and sketches as well as contemporary diasporic novels by Malaysian and Singapore born authors based outside their countries of origin The premise is that home is a physical space as well as a symbolic terrain invested with social political and cultural meanings As discussions of politics and history augment close readings of literary works the book should appeal not only to scholars of literature but also to scholars of Southeast Asian politics and history      Return to Malaya A. J. Bennitt, 1945*      Return to Malaya Robert Hamilton Bruce Lockhart (Sir), 1936      Tropic Crucible Ranjit Chatterjee, Colin Nicholson, 1984      Malaya's Secret Police 1945-60 Leon Comber, 2008 The Malayan Emergency lasted from 1948 to 1960 During these tumultuous years following so soon after the Japanese surrender at the end of the Second World War the whole country was once more turned upside down and the lives of the people changed The war against the Communist Party of Malaya's determined efforts to overthrow the Malayan government involved the whole population in one form or another Dr Comber analyses the pivotal role of the Malayan Police's Special Branch the government's supreme intelligence agency in defeating the communist uprising and safeguarding the security of the country He shows for the first time how the Special Branch was organised and how it worked in providing the security forces with political and operational intelligence His book represents a major contribution to our understanding of the Emergency and will be of great interest to

Words Laurel Means, 2009 The Final Betrayal Mark Felton, 2010-06-19 This book examines the period between the unconditional surrender of Japan on 14 August 1945 and the arrival of Allied liberation forces in Japanese occupied territories after 2 September 1945 The delay handed the Japanese a golden opportunity to set their house in order before Allied war crimes investigators arrived After 14 August groups of Allied POWs were brutally murdered Vast amounts of documentation concerning crimes were burned ahead of the arrival of Allied forces POW facilities and medical experimentation installations were either abandoned or destroyed Perhaps the greatest crimes were continuing deaths of Allied POWs from starvation disease and ill treatment after the Japanese surrender The blame rests with the American authorities and particularly General MacArthur Supreme Allied Commander in the Pacific MacArthur expressly forbade any

Allied forces from liberating Japanese occupied territories before he had personally taken the formal Japanese surrender aboard the USS Missouri in Tokyo Bay on 2 September 1945 Vice Admiral Lord Mountbatten Commanding Allied forces in Southeast Asia protested against this policy believing that pandering to MacArthurs vanity and ego would mean condemning many starving and sick prisoners to death Deaths among British and Commonwealth POWs were significant as opposed to American POWs who were already largely liberated in the Philippines and elsewhere Madras State Administration Report
