The Return of the Shadow Whistler Royce Walker, 2014-06-20 In a faraway village a boy intently watches as his grandmother reads his cards After she tells him his destiny will be forever tied to the failings of taught lessons and that he must overcome corruption and power with a pure heart Michael suddenly realizes there is a world before him that harbors secrets and that nothing is as it seems Meanwhile moments after a young priest finds something in the sky he was never meant to see he lies dead on the floor of a computer room as hard drives melt and a lone man ensures this is not the time for discovery Years later Father Michael Vaetas is vacillating between his identity as priest and well heeled academician as he learns the Papal Council for Scientific Investigations has appointed him to the section for astronomical studies While Vaetas hopes he will finally be freed from the iron grip of the church he instead is told the Council wants him to find a way to end time As Vaetas travels through time on a dangerous journey to the truth age old religious institutions and faith collide as a negative power seeks to destroy the heritage of man In this exciting science fiction tale loyalties are tested and a power is forced to prove its merit as a priest attempts to fulfill his destiny and all wonder whether the answer is shining among the stars Ayesha, the Return of She; A Novel H. Rider Haggard, 2025-08-17 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Return of Grey Shadow George E. Rochester, 2022-08-16 DigiCat Publishing presents to you this special edition of The Return of Grey Shadow by George E Rochester DigiCat Publishing considers every written word to be a legacy of humankind Every DigiCat book has been carefully reproduced for republishing in a new modern format The books are available in print as well as ebooks DigiCat hopes you will treat this work with the acknowledgment and passion it deserves as a classic of world literature The Infernal Return Rodney Farnsworth, 2001-10-30 George Lukas and other leading filmmakers acknowledge their indebtedness to mythographic scholarship on archetypes In his new study author Rodney Farnsworth identifies a pattern of filmmakers obsessions with archetypal rituals centered on sacrifice and the family in films made between 1977 and 1983 a period of political upheaval on both sides of the Atlantic Combining a strong historical reading of the films in a sociopolitical context and utilizing Queer Theory as a framework for his arguments Farnsworth offers a close examination of key films of the period including works by Stanley Kubrick Robert Altman and Francis Ford Coppola and provides a fascinating and timely glimpse of an important political and cinematic time Marking the end of a more liberal era the late seventies and early eighties witnessed the growth of reactionary conservative movements such as the New Religious Political Right These were the years that gave birth to movies from esoteric art house pictures to blockbusters such as Star Wars that seemed in many cases to be adaptations of primordial mythology subverting liberal to moderate views into reactionary depictions of family life Although filmmakers had turned to these myths to shape their works Farnsworth observes the unstable volatile nature of the archetypes deconstructed their best social intentions into something rich strange and deadly This thought provoking work will be of interest to students of social history as well as film studies The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction Areti Dragas, 2014-08-31 Focusing on the figure of the storyteller this study breaks new ground in the approach to reading contemporary literature by identifying a growing interest in storytelling For the last thirty years contemporary fiction has been influenced by theoretical discourses textuality and writing Only since the rise of postcolonialism have academic critics been more overtly interested in stories where high theory frameworks are less applicable However as we move through various contemporary contexts engaging with postcolonial identities and hybridity to narratives of disability and evolutionary accounts of group and individual survival a common feature of all is the centrality of story which posits both the idea of survival and the passing on of traditions The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction closely examines this preoccupation with story and storytelling through a close reading of six contemporary international novelists that are either about actual storytellers or engage with the figure of the storyteller revealing how death of the author has given birth to the storyteller

Robert Serumaga and the Golden Age of Uganda's Theatre (1968-1978) George Bwanika Seremba, 2023-11-14 This book provides a meticulous examination of the work of playwright Robert Serumaga and the Golden Age of Uganda's theatre 1968-1978 It considers the question of individualism or its extreme form solipsism on the one hand and activism or a social conscience on the other Theatrical innovation is another key concern It deconstructs the ruling histories historiography and performance analysis of the time as irremediably tainted by a ferocious post independence nation statism This is a study of a theatre of commitment dissidence resistance resilience struggle signification and survival a theatre born under the unrelenting glare of severe scorching censorship and incarceration For the very first time Serumaga's work is examined in its entirety and afforded the room complexity and scope it requires and deserves For the very first time too scholars of the Golden Age of Uganda's theatre will have to make no more than a single stop in their search for what were hitherto scattered tidbits and sources of Uganda's theatre history

Israel/Palestine Drew Paul, 2020-01-07 Since the early 1990s Israel has greatly expanded a system checkpoints walls and other barriers in the West Bank and Gaza that restrict Palestinian movement Israel Palestine examines how authors and filmmakers have grappled with the spread of these borders Focusing on the works of Elia Suleiman Raba'i al Madhoun Ghassan Kanafani Sami Michael and Sayed Kashua it traces how political engagement in literature and film has shifted away from previously common paradigms of resistance and coexistence and has become reorganised around these now ubiquitous physical barriers Depictions of these borders interrogate the notion that such spaces are impenetrable and unbreakable imagine distinct forms of protest and redefine the relationship between cultural production and political engagement

The Return of the Mughal: Historical Fiction and Despotism in Colonial India, 1863-1908 Alex Padamsee, 2018-11-03 This Pivot explores the uses of the Mughal past in the historical fiction of colonial India Through detailed reconsiderations of canonical works by Rudyard Kipling Flora Annie Steel and Romesh Chunder Dutt the author argues for a more complex and integral understanding of the part played by the Mughal imaginary in colonial and early Indian nationalist projections of sovereignty Evoking the rich historical and transnational contexts of these literary narratives the study demonstrates the ways in which at successive moments of crisis and contestation in the later Raj the British Indian state continued to be troubled by its early and profound investments in models of despotism first located by colonial administrators in the figure of the Mughal emperor At the heart of these political fictions lay the issue of territoriality and the founding problem of a British claim to sole proprietorship of Indian land a form of Orientalist exceptionalism that at once underpinned and could never fully be integrated with the colonial rule of law Alongside its recovery of a wealth of popular and often overlooked colonial historiography The Return of the Mughal emphasises the relevance of theories of political theology from Carl Schmitt and Ernst Kantorowicz to Talal Asad and Giorgio Agamben to our understanding of the fictional and jurisprudential histories of colonialism This study aims to show just how closely the pageantry and romance of empire in India connects to its early politics of terror and even today continues to inform the figure of the Mughal in the sectarian politics of Hindu Nationalism

They Return at Evening: A Book of Ghost Stories H. R. Wakefield, 1891-01-01 Well that s over I expected an ordeal and found almost a farce There is something to be said for being a Local Notable For example deferential condolences and preferential treatment and no awkward questions from the Coroner when one s wife is found dead at the bottom of the steps into the garden With what censorious disdain old Weldon brushed aside the curiosity of Mr Trench Senior Now I have prosecuted Trench Junior for poaching three times consequently Trench Senior does not love me So I was none too pleased to see him on the Jury I knew he would be nasty if he saw a chance and he asked a very nasty and intelligent question For if she had tripped on the top steps I doubt if she would have fallen so far and if she had slipped lower down why such shattering injury Why indeed You didn t deserve such a pulverising rebuke Mr Trench but I m very glad you got it And now that it is all over I can reflect without anxiety Reflect that I am a murderer and as such if I got my deserts a doomed and execrated pariah No more loose generalisation was ever made than that whoever commits adultery and of course any other sin or crime in his heart is guilty of that offence Every man of imagination who is tempted commits sins in his heart as often as he is tempted but not one in ten thousand commits them with his hand Myriads of men must have played with the idea of killing their wives but I killed mine Is there no difference Consult the Shade of Ethel No I realise perfectly that I possess a kink which should have resulted in a six foot drop That I might never kill again and that it was only by an acute combination of circumstances that I did so once is beside the point A murderer should die if he is sane and sober and selfish And am I so sure I could never commit another I am not so sure I have no remorse There might be something to be said for a murderer who bitterly repents though I d hang him but as for me why shouldn t I murder again if someone again drove me to such an extremity of exasperation I rehearse all this why and to whom Why because murderer though I am I feel compelled to tell the story of this repulsive episode impartially and so rid my mind of it and perhaps forget it for murderer though I am otherwise I believe myself to be reasonably decent and civilised and I want to see what sort of defence I can muster And to whom do I address myself Well it has long been a theory of mine more than that a profound conviction that the minds of men are far more complex bifurcated and stratified than is generally accepted or perceived There is more than one I pervading my consciousness There is the I the murderer who is sitting here recalling sifting and writing down I number one let us call him but there is also I number two who is compelled to observe I number one It has been suggested that there is also a number three watching number two and so on ad infinitum It may be so but for me there is a limit set to the terms in the series and it is fixed at number two I often feel compelled to explain to him the actions of number one though I do not feel he is or wants to be a judge but just an aloofly interested spectator in no sense a conscience but poised in another layer of consciousness It is with such vague precision that this duality works in me And I want to explain to this watcher just how I came to kill Ethel He may or may not be particularly interested but he is in the unfortunate position of being compelled to listen The Good News of the Return of the King Michael T. Jahosky,2020-09-15 Although many people today reject Christianity for intellectual reasons greater numbers of people are rejecting Christianity because it does not engage their imagination Christians must not only demonstrate that the Christian worldview is true but that it is also good beautiful and relevant The Good News of the Return of the King The Gospel in Middle earth is a book that endeavors to show the truth goodness and beauty of Jesus Christ the gospel and the biblical metanarrative by engaging the imagination through J R R Tolkien s The Lord of the Rings as well as The Hobbit and The Silmarillion In this book I propose that J R R Tolkien s The Lord of the Rings is a story about what Jesus parables are about the good news about the return of the king As a work of imaginative fiction similar to Jesus parables The Lord of the Rings can bypass both intellectual and imaginative objections to the gospel and pull back the veil of familiarity that obscures the gospel for many The Shadow Government Len Bracken,2002 This book presents the alarming evidence that nation states actively engage in terror and also passively allow terror to be visited upon their citizens It is not just liberation movements and radical groups that deploy terrorist tactics for offensive ends States use terror defensively to directly intimidate their citizens and to indirectly attack themselves or harm their citizens under a false flag Their motivation To provide pretexts for otherwise unwanted wars or to gain increased police powers Statesmen have executed indirect terrorism in various ways but most plots tend to involve the pretence of blind eyes misdirection and cover ups that give the statesmen plausible deniability The shrinking of the Lusitania the bombing of Pearl Harbour the October Surprise the first World Trade Center bombing the Oklahoma City bombing and other well known incidents suggest that terrorism is often successfully used by states to take the offensive against enemies at home and abroad Was 9 11 such an indirect defensive attack Len Bracken traces the clues circumstantially connecting a multi armed hydra of oil interests the CIA FBI diplomats and statesmen to the September 11 attacks and examines whether they were engineered or allowed as a pretext for the war in Afghanistan The subsequent anthrax attack targeting Democratic senators is considered in light of the controversial USA Patriot Acts rights encroaching measures and the act s easy passage under conditions of terror A shadow government appears to have covered the land like black ice Lost in the Shadow of the Word Benjamin Paloff,2016-12-15 2018 AATSEEL Prize for Best Book in Literary Scholarship Scholars of modernism have long addressed how literature painting and music reflected the radical reconceptualization of space and time in the early twentieth century a veritable revolution in both physics and philosophy that has been characterized as precipitating an epistemic trauma around the world

In this wide ranging study Benjamin Paloff contends that writers in Central and Eastern Europe felt this impact quite distinctly from their counterparts in Western Europe For the latter the destabilization of traditional notions of space and time inspired works that saw in it a new kind of freedom However for many Central and Eastern European authors who were writing from within public discourses about how to construct new social realities the need for escape met the realization that there was both nowhere to escape to and no stable delineation of what to escape from In reading the prose and poetry of Czech Polish and Russian writers Paloff imbues the term Kafkaesque with a complexity so far missing from our understanding of this moment in literary history
