Transactions and Proceedings Royal Society of New Zealand, 1927 Includes proceedings of member institutes of the Society and of the Society's Science Congress The Peace In Between Astri Suhrke, Mats Berdal, 2013-03 This volume examines the causes and purposes of post conflict violence The end of a war is generally expected to be followed by an end to collective violence as the term post conflict that came into general usage in the 1990s signifies In reality however various forms of deadly violence continue and sometimes even increase after the big guns have been silenced and a peace agreement signed Explanations for this and other kinds of violence fall roughly into two broad categories those that stress the legacies of the war and those that focus on the conditions of the peace There are significant gaps in the literature most importantly arising from the common premise that there is one predominant type of post war situation This post war state is often endowed with certain generic features that predispose it towards violence such as a weak state criminal elements generated by the war time economy demobilized but not demilitarized or reintegrated ex combatants impunity and rapid liberalization The premise of this volume differs It argues that features which constrain or encourage violence stack up in ways to create distinct and different types of post war environments Critical factors that shape the post war environment in this respect lie in the war to peace transition itself above all the outcome of the war in terms of military and political power and its relationship to social hierarchies of power normative understandings of the post war order and the international context This book will of much interest to students of war and conflict studies peacebuilding and IR Security Studies in general

Recontextualizing Indian Shakespeare Cinema in the West Varsha Panjwani, Koel Chatterjee, 2023-01-26 Featuring case studies essays and conversation pieces by scholars and practitioners this volume explores how Indian cinematic adaptations outside the geopolitical and cultural boundaries of India are revitalizing the broader landscape of Shakespeare research performance and pedagogy Chapters in this volume address practical and thematic concerns and opportunities that are specific to studying Indian cinematic Shakespeares in the West For instance how have intercultural encounters between Indian Shakespeare films and American students inspired new pedagogic methodologies How has the presence and popularity of Indian Shakespeare films affected policy change at British cultural institutions How can disagreement between eastern and western perspectives on the politics of a Shakespeare film become the site for productive cross cultural dialogue This is the first book to explore such complex interactions between Indian Shakespeare films and Western audiences to contribute to the assessment of the new networks that have emerged as a result of Global Shakespeare studies and practices

The volume argues that by tracking critical currents from India towards the West new insights are afforded on the wider field of Shakespeare Studies including feminist Shakespeares translation in Shakespeare or the study of music in Shakespeare and are shaping debates on the ownership and meaning of Shakespeare itself Contributing to the current studies in Global Shakespeare this book marks a discursive shift in the way Shakespeare on Indian screen is predominantly theorised and offers an alternative methodology for examining non Anglophone cinematic Shakespeares as a whole Trade-marks Journal ,1980-05
