Shikwa-e-Hind Mujibur Rehman,2024-05-21 Roughly 200 million today Indian Muslims are greater than the population of Britain and France or Germany put together According to the Indian Constitution Indian Muslims are treated as political equals which is what India s secular polity promised after its independence encouraging more than 35 million Indian Muslims at the time of Partition to choose India as their motherland over Pakistan However the supposed relationship of equality between Hindus and Muslims as scripted in the constitution is being increasingly replaced by the domineering tendencies of a Hindu majority in India today The author describes the current state and position of Indian Muslims the seeds for which were sown when the BJP came to power in 2014 as the thirdpolitical moment the second he believes was in 1947 when the community was given equal status in the Indian Constitution and the first was in 1857 when Indian Muslims learnt to live under the British colonial state As he states there is no denying that political circumstances for Indian Muslims were not completely ideal or full of democratic energy prior to the rise of the Hindu Right since the late 1980s With numerous layers defined by language ethnicity region etc Muslims have the most heterogeneous identity representing India s quintessential diversity And yet Muslims are perceived as the most enduring well grounded threat to the majoritarian project of the Hindu Rashtra Indian Muslims are perceived or presented as perpetrators of violence and violators of law even if they are at the receiving end They are viewed as an internal enemy who need to be dealt with for political social historical and ideological reasons Going forward the community must formulate the language of democratic rights of Indian Muslims as equal citizens and define the ethics of human dignity in their struggle to reassert their place in India's political power structures at all levels from panchayat to Parliament While the economic future or cultural rights of Indian Muslims have been debated since 1947 it is the political future that demands attention because only as an equal and participatory community in the politics of the nation can economic and cultural futures be addressed This book explores the political future of Indian Muslims in this context From Shaheen Bagh to Hindu Muslim riots from the unique position of Muslim women in India to the Sachar Report and the Muslim backwardness debate Mujibur Rehman analyses confronts and discusses the urgent concerns of Indian Muslims in a manner that is nuanced and globally relevant Bahudhā and the Post 9/11 World Balmiki Prasad

Singh, 2008-02-20 The rise of terrorism and fundamentalism in recent times has brought about phenomenal changes in global politics These unprecedented challenges call for a new bold and imaginative statecraft from world leaders Underlining the need to transcend age old peace mechanism and reconstruct our language of discourse this book propounds the concept of Bahudh an eternal reality or continuum a dialogue of harmony and peaceful living Bahudh recognizes the distinction between plural societies and pluralism facilitates exchange of views and promotes understanding of the collective good The book is divided into five parts The first part discusses the major events witnessed by the world during 1989 2001 the fall of Berlin Wall transfer of Hong Kong to China and the terrorist attack on the USA on September 11 and their implication for various nations cultures and international peace The next part discusses India's experiences in handling the pluralistic challenges by citing examples from the Vedas and Puranas and analysing policies followed by Ashoka Kabir Guru Nanak Akbar and Mahatma Gandhi In the subsequent sections the author underlines the importance of Bahudh as an instrument of public policy for harmony and also discusses the global imperatives of following such an approach He highlights the central role of education and religion in the building of a harmonious society and advocates the strengthening of the United Nations to become an effective global conflict resolution mechanism Gandhi Arvind Sharma, 2013-07-30

DIV In his Autobiography Gandhi wrote What I want to achieve what I have been striving and pining to achieve these thirty years is self realization to see God face to face All that I do by way of speaking and writing and all my ventures in the political field are directed to this same end While hundreds of biographies and histories have been written about Gandhi 1869 1948 nearly all of them have focused on the political social or familial dimensions of his life Very few in recounting how Gandhi led his country to political freedom have viewed his struggle primarily as a search for spiritual liberation Shifting the focus to the understudied subject of Gandhi's spiritual life Arvind Sharma retells the story of Gandhi's life through this lens Illuminating unsuspected dimensions of Gandhi's inner world and uncovering their surprising connections with his outward actions Sharma explores the eclectic religious atmosphere in which Gandhi was raised his belief in reincarnation his conviction that morality and religion are synonymous his attitudes toward tyranny and freedom and perhaps most important the mysterious source of his power to establish new norms of human conduct This book enlarges our understanding of one of history's most profoundly influential figures a man whose trust in the power of the soul helped liberate millions div
