IOI NEWSLETTER – JUNE/JULY 2003

This is going to be the last communication from me before we all meet at IOI in Wisconsin! By now your arrangements and plans for the Olympiad must be almost entirely complete and your contestants all eagerly looking forward to the excitement of what will be a memorable event. The organizing committee in Wisconsin have been hard at work for a long time to ensure that this IOI will leave a lasting memory on all who attend. That is the wonderful thing about IOI. Every one is different from those before it and each in its own way makes a unique contribution on making us aware of the different cultures and traditions of every country. IOI is also the opportunity for many of us to renew our friendships and to make new ones. This IOI (like those before it) will create times and events where we can all interact and meet under very relaxed conditions.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

This is the formal meeting place where Team Leaders, Deputy Team leaders and other official representatives meet on an annual basis to approve the forward planning of IOI. This group owns the IOI and therefore has an important role to play. You will once again be called upon to approve the Rules of the Competition and the Problems that have been prepared by the host Scientific Committee. Many other issues will be placed before members of GA and to this end you will receive a detailed Agenda, the Minutes of last years GA and other documentation on your arrival at the University of Wisconsin Parkside. Please study these and come prepared to participate fully in the discussions.
