to the prominence of women in local societies the construction of African Methodism the diverse social profile of Methodist men and contests over the movement's future Andrews charts Methodism's metamorphosis from a British missionary organization to a fully Americanized church Weaving together narrative and analysis Andrews explains Methodism's extraordinary popular appeal in rich and compelling new detail Developing Early Childhood Services: Past, Present and Future Peter Baldock, 2011-01-16 Since Labour came to power in 1997 early years services have undergone a huge transformation for example a significant increase in the scale of provision the creation of an overarching policy approach Every Child Matters the establishment of new departments focused on children and their families at local and national level new structures designed to promote partnership between different bodies concerned with children's welfare significant changes in the early years curriculum new subsidies for childcare and education and new arrangements for regulation The book would offer an historical account of the development of early years services in the United Kingdom with consideration of developments in Wales Scotland and Northern Ireland as well as England After an Introduction arguing the relevance of an historical perspective it would offer a fairly brief account of developments from the 16th century to the Second World War a similarly brief account of developments from the Second World War up until the Conservative victory of 1979 a more detailed account of developments in the period of Conservative Government 1979-1997 and three chapters with an even more detailed account of developments since 1997 It is easy for those involved to become so focused on the implementation of the latest changes that they lose sight of the process of change itself This book would be intended to help them to understand what has happened so far to evaluate that process and to prepare for the future The objective would be to assist the reader to understand what has happened and why rather than argue that what we have now is or is not better than what went before or than any other set of arrangements that might be conceived Social Forces and Aging Robert C.
