

An abstract black and white artwork featuring large, expressive, gestural brushstrokes. The composition is dominated by dark, almost black, shapes against a light, off-white background. These shapes are irregular and organic, suggesting movement and energy. In the lower portion of the image, the text 'LA RÉVOLUTION AUTOMATISTE' is printed in a bold, yellow, sans-serif font. The text is slightly offset to the left, with the word 'LA' being smaller than the others. The overall aesthetic is reminiscent of mid-20th-century abstract art, particularly the style of Jean-Paul Rault or similar automatist artists.

With an interweaving of historical narrative, lavish illustrations and writings by many of Canada's most revered cultural figures, Lora Senechal Carney illuminates the lives, perspectives and works of the era's painters and provides glimpses of the sculptors, poets, dancers, critics and filmmakers with whom they associated. Canadian Painters in a Modern World gives readers direct access to a carefully curated selection of writings, artworks, photos and other documents that help to reconstruct the public spheres in which artists including Paul-Émile Borduas, Emily Carr, Alex Colville, Lawren Harris, David Milne and Pegi Nicol MacLeod circulated. Each of the book's eight chapters consists of a narrative about a key issue or debate focusing on the relationship of art to politics and society and on how these are negotiated in an individual's life. Relating artistic engagement with and responses to the Spanish Civil War, the Second World War and the Cold War, Senechal Carney discovers a common desire for new connections between art and life. Revealing continuities, ruptures and watershed moments, Canadian Painters in a Modern World showcases artistic production within specific socio-political contexts to shed new light on Canadian art during three decades of conflict and crisis. RACAR, Revue D'art Canadienne, 1996 The Automatiste Revolution Roald Nasgaard, Ray Ellenwood, 2009 Following the success of Abstract Painting in Canada comes an introduction to the Automatistes, Canada's first avant-garde art movement. Young and innovative Montrealers, the Automatistes revolutionized painting in the 1940s. Living in the restrictive Quebec of the Duplessis years, painters, dancers and writers led by Paul-Émile Borduas and inspired by the Surrealists, found freedom of expression in abstraction pursued through automatism, an instinctive, unpremeditated form of creating art. On August 9, 1948, the Automatiste painters published Refus global, a call for the right to live and make art spontaneously and freely. The group would be acclaimed internationally, due largely to Jean-Paul Riopelle. Sixty years later, the Automatiste legacy is alive in Jean-Paul Mousseau's murals, Marcelle
