Rivals Beyond Trade Dennis J. Encarnation, 1993 Rival Capitalists Jeffrey A. Hart, 1992 Hart describes the global structure of production and consumption in the five major capitalist countries and offers a rich comparative history of their industrial policymaking. He concludes that variations in state-societal arrangements and the impact these differences have on the creation and diffusion of new technologies provide the best explanation for divergences in international competitiveness. In Japan, state and business are allied but labor is marginalized; whereas in Germany, labor and business are allied and the state is decentralized. Yet both countries have become increasingly competitive because they have developed institutional mechanisms for technology diffusion. France's state-led system in contrast is linked with only moderate competitiveness. The decline of competitiveness in the United States and Britain, Hart concludes, may be attributed to state-societal arrangements that have allowed one actor, labor in Britain, business in the United States, to dominate policymaking.

APEC Chia Siow Yue, 1994 Political and academic interest in economic relations among APEC economies and in the APEC process has been gaining momentum. The November 1993 Seattle meetings of APEC ministers and leaders marked a turning point for the APEC forum. APEC Challenges and Opportunities is the result of the First APEC Roundtable held in June 1994 to analyze the issues involved and explore the future direction of APEC. Two papers provide the background for the analysis of APEC economic relations and the co-operation agenda: one examining security issues in the region and the other the economic dynamism of East Asia. The next set of papers trace the evolution of the concept of Asia-Pacific economic co-operation, examine the APEC process and structure as well as differences in American and Asian approaches, and explore the likely institutional structure and appropriate agenda for APEC. Also looked into are the trends and patterns of trade and investment interdependence among the APEC countries, the various options for regional trade and investment facilitation, and the case for an APEC free trade area and an APEC investment code. The two final papers examine subsets of the APEC relationships, namely the complementary and competitive elements between ASEAN and APEC and between ASEAN and NAFTA.

The Politics of International Economic Relations Jeffrey A. Hart, Joan Edelman Spero, 2013-06-17 The first and definitive book of its kind, Joan Spero's The Politics of International Economic Relations has been fully updated to reflect the sweeping changes in the international arena. With the expertise of co-author Jeffrey Hart, the fifth edition strengthens the coverage of political and economic relations since the end of the Cold War, economic polarization in developing nations, and the roots of economic decline in centrally planned economies. A new chapter on industrial policy and competitiveness debates further illustrates the changing dynamics of International Political Economy. Ideal as a supplement to the International Relations course or as the core text in International Political Economy, Spero and Hart's The Politics of International Economic Relations continues to give students the breadth and depth of scholarship needed to understand the politics of the world.

economy US-Asia Economic Relations Justin Robertson, 2008-09-02 Pt 1 Towards a different approach pt 2 US economic behaviour in Asia after the financial crisis pt 3 Explaining divergent US economic interests International Production Networks in Asia Michael Borrus, Dieter Ernst, Stephan Haggard, 2003-09-02 This book addresses the changing nature of high tech industries in Asia particularly in the electronics sector Its up to date findings will be invaluable to those involved in management production networks and corporate strategy Japan's Policy Trap Akio Mikuni, R. Taggart Murphy, 2003-11-26 Until quite recently the Japanese inspired a kind of puzzled awe They had pulled themselves together from the ruin of war built at breakneck speed a formidable array of export champions and emerged as the worlds number two economy and largest net creditor nation But today only the puzzlement remains This book offers a provocative new analysis of the countrys protracted economic stagnation Nationalism, Liberalism, and Progress: The dismal fate of new nations Ernst B. Haas, 1997 Has global liberalism made the nation state obsolete Or on the contrary are primordial nationalist hatreds overwhelming cosmopolitanism To assert either theme without serious qualification according to Ernst B Haas is historically simplistic and morally misleading Haas describes nationalism as a key component of modernity and a crucial instrument for making sense of impersonal rapidly changing and heterogeneous societies He characterizes nationalism as a feeling of collective identity a mutual understanding experienced among people who may never meet but who are persuaded that they belong to a community of kindred spirits Without nationalism there could be no large integrated state He explores nationalism in five societies that had achieved the status of nation states by about 1880 the United States Britain France Germany and Japan Remapping East Asia T. J. Pempel, 2018-08-06 An overarching ambiguity characterizes East Asia today The region has at least a century long history of internal divisiveness war and conflict and it remains the site of several nettlesome territorial disputes However a mixture of complex and often competing agents and processes has been knitting together various segments of East Asia In Remapping East Asia T J Pempel suggests that the region is ripe for cooperation rather than rivalry and that recent region building developments in East Asia have had a substantial cumulative effect on the broader canvas of international politics This collection is about the people processes and institutions behind that region building In it experts on the area take a broad approach to the dynamics and implications of regionalism Instead of limiting their focus to security matters they extend their discussions to topics as diverse as the mercurial nature of Japan s leadership role in the region Southeast Asian business networks the war on terrorism in Asia and the political economy of environmental regionalism Throughout they show how nation states corporations and problem specific coalitions have furthered regional cohesion not only by establishing formal institutions but also by operating informally semiformally or even secretly
