Rob Walker:

Buying In Rob Walker, 2008-06-03 Brands are dead Advertising no longer works Consumers are in control Or so we're told In Buying In Rob Walker argues that this accepted wisdom misses a much more important cultural shift including a practice he calls marketing in which people create brands of their own and participate in unprecedented ways in marketing campaigns for their favorites Yes rather than becoming immune to them we are rapidly embracing brands Profiling Timberland American Apparel Pabst Blue Ribbon Red Bull iPod and Livestrong among others Walker demonstrates the ways in which buyers adopt products not just as consumer choices but as conscious expressions of their identities Part marketing primer part work of cultural anthropology Buying In reveals why now more than ever we are what we buy and vice versa

The Biden Crime Family Shawn Armstrong, 2025-10-06 In The Biden Crime Family Shawn Armstrong unveils a meticulously researched investigation into the intricate web of influence peddling surrounding Joe Biden and his family This compelling narrative delves into critical documents including explosive bank records that reveal the creation of over twenty shell companies designed for clandestine financial dealings From Hunter Biden's business interactions abroad to the alarming allegations of foreign bribery schemes outlined in a bombshell FBI record Armstrong presents a chilling portrait of power dynamics at play With insights drawn from IRS whistleblower testimonies and congressional investigations readers will uncover the tangled connections between the Biden family and foreign entities in Russia Kazakhstan and Ukraine The book highlights pivotal moments including direct payments traced back to dubious sources raising profound questions about ethics and accountability at the highest levels of government Armstrong's thorough examination challenges readers to confront uncomfortable truths about influence and corruption in modern politics Step into the shadows of political intrigue purchase The Biden Crime Family today and explore the evidence that could reshape perceptions of power in America

The Vestry Book of St. Paul's Parish, Hanover County, Virginia, 1706-1786 Churchill Gibson Chamberlayne, 2009-06 More than a half century ago C G Chamberlayne under the sponsorship of the Virginia State Library transcribed edited and indexed a number of original Virginia parish vestry books four of which are reprinted here While the dates of coverage and lengths of the volumes vary they are nonetheless similar in terms of scope and content Each volume contains the oldest known records pertaining to that parish in most cases beginning only a few years following the parish s date of formation Mr Chamberlayne begins each vestry book with an Introduction that pieces together the formation of the parish and important milestones in its history from published and original sources Facsimiles of pages from the original vestry books maps and photographs help to put each volume into greater context moreover Appended to the vestry books are brief lists of the various parish ministers with an indication of their earliest date of service as found in the records The transcriptions themselves ranging from about 250 to more than 600 pages of text relate to the following issues growing out of the business affairs of colonial parish vestries namely payments to persons for services rendered to the parish oaths and lists of oath takers news of the arrival of ministers the appointment of church wardens issues related to indentured servants lists of tithables payment of salaries and other obligations the formation of parish precincts with the names of the families apportioned therein the warding of children and so on In each case these four scarce collections of colonial church records establish the existence of thousands of Virginia inhabitants each of whom is easily found in the index or indexes at the back of the book
