Robert Frank Moving Out:

Robert Frank Robert Frank, 1994 Moving Out: Robert Frank Philip Brookman, Sarah Greenough, 1994 Robert Frank : Moving Out Robert Frank, Whitney Museum of American Art, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), 1994 Feast of Excess George Cotkin, 2016 Feast of Excess is an engaging and accessible portrait of The New Sensibility as it was named by Susan Sontag in 1965 The New Sensibility sought to push culture in extreme directions either towards stark minimalism or gaudy maximalism Through vignette profiles of prominent figures John Cage Patricia Highsmith Allen Ginsberg Andy Warhol Anne Sexton John Coltrane Bob Dylan Erica Jong and Thomas Pynchon to name a few George Cotkin presents their bold headline grabbing performances and places them within the historical moment Awakening the Eye George Kouvaros, 2015-09-01 Until now celebrated photographer Robert Frank's daring and unconventional work as a filmmaker has not been awarded the critical notice it deserves In this timely volume George Kouvaros surveys Frank's films and videos and places them in the larger context of experimentation in American art and literature since World War II Born in 1924 Frank emigrated from Switzerland to the United States in 1947 and quickly made his mark as a photojournalist A 1955 Guggenheim Foundation fellowship allowed him to travel across the country photographing aspects of American life that had previously received little attention The resulting book The Americans with an Introduction by Jack Kerouac is generally considered a landmark in the history of postwar photography During the same period Frank befriended other artists and writers among them Allen Ginsberg Peter Orlovsky and Gregory Corso all of whom are featured in his first film Pull My Daisy which is narrated by Kerouac This film set the terms for a new era of experimental filmmaking By examining Frank's films and videos including Pull My Daisy Me and My Brother and Cocksucker Blues in the framework of his more widely recognized photographic achievements Kouvaros develops a model of cross media history in which photography film and video are complicit in the search for fresh forms of visual expression Awakening the Eye is an insightful compelling and at times moving account of Frank's determination to forge a personal connection between the circumstances of his life and the media in which he works Existential America George Cotkin, 2003 As Cotkin shows not only did Americans readily take to existentialism but they were already heirs to a rich tradition of thinkers from Jonathan Edwards and Herman Melville to Emily Dickinson and William James who had wrestled with the problems of existence and the contingency of the world long before Sartre and his colleagues After introducing the concept of an American existential tradition Cotkin examines how formal existentialism first arrived in America in the 1930s through discussion of Kierkegaard and the early vogue among New York intellectuals for the works of Sartre Beauvoir and Camus Suspended Conversations Martha Langford, 2021-10-13 In Suspended Conversations Martha Langford shows how photographic albums tell intimate and revealing stories about individuals and families Rather than isolate the individual photograph treat albums as texts or argue that photography has supplanted memory she demonstrates that the photographic album must be taken as a whole and interpreted as a visual and

verbal performance that extends oral consciousness Exhibiting a collection of photographic travelogues memoirs thematic collections and family sagas compiled between 1860 and 1960 and held by the McCord Museum of Canadian History this second edition includes a revised and expanded preface along with new photographs of the Notman albums Printed in colour throughout the enhanced material draws out the distinct nuances and details of each album giving them new life to tell their stories Albums are treasured by families collected as illustrations of the past by museums of social history and examined by scholars for what they can reveal about attitudes and sensibilities but when no one is left to tell the tale the intrigue of the album becomes a puzzle a suspended conversation Langford argues that oral consciousness provides the missing key Correlating photography and orality she explains how albums were designed to work as performances and how we can unlock their mysteries A fascinating glimpse of the preoccupations of previous centuries Suspended Conversations brings photography into the great conversation of how we remember and how we send our stories into the future 'You Should See Yourself' Vincent Brook, 2006-07-24 The past few decades have seen a remarkable surge in Jewish influences on American culture Entertainers and artists such as Jerry Seinfeld Adam Sandler Allegra Goodman and Tony Kushner have heralded new waves of television film literature and theater a major klezmer revival is under way bagels are now as commonplace as pizza and kabbalah has become as cool as crystals Does this broad range of cultural expression accurately reflect what it means to be Jewish in America today Bringing together fourteen new essays by leading scholars You Should See Yourself examines the fluctuating representations of Jewishness in a variety of areas of popular culture and high art including literature the media film theater music dance painting photography and comedy Contributors explore the evolution that has taken place within these cultural forms and how we can best explain these changes Are variations in our understanding of Jewishness the result of general phenomena such as multiculturalism politics and postmodernism or are they the product of more specifically Jewish concerns such as the intermarriage continuity crisis religious renewal and relations between the United States and Israel Accessible to students and general readers alike this volume takes an important step toward advancing the discussion of Jewish cultural influences in this country Frank Films Robert Frank, 2003 Robert Frank has always faced up to one thing only himself That is shown by this work the films even more than the photographs This book is dedicated to Frank's film even more than the photographs This book is dedicated to Frank's film and video oeuvre which grew and developed impressively in the years between 1959 and 2002 though unnoticed by most of the world An American Collection Amon Carter Museum of Western Art, Patricia A. Junker, 2001 Amon G Carter 1879-1955 is one of the legendary men of Texas history Born in a log cabin he was self made becoming Fort Worth's leading citizen and champion He developed an interest in the art of Frederic Remington and Charles M Russell through his friendship with Will Rogers Carter's will provided for the establishment of a museum in Fort Worth devoted to the art of the American West While the museum holds the most significant collection anywhere of works by Remington and Russell and is a pioneer in the field of western studies it has evolved into one of the great museums of American art as a whole focusing on artists working on successive frontiers aesthetic as well as geographic Its photography collection alone has grown to nearly one quarter of a million objects The museum designed by noted architect Philip Johnson opened to the public in 1961 On the occasion of its fortieth anniversary a substantially expanded building also designed by Mr Johnson was inaugurated This volume relates the museum s history and presents color and duotone illustrations of 125 of its masterworks dating from 1822 to 1998 paintings sculpture prints watercolors pastels drawings and photographs with an essay about each and a biography of each artist It includes a number of landmark works recently added to the collection and unveiled here for the first time paintings by John Singer Sargent Stuart Davis and Marsden Hartley sculpture by Alexander Calder and Louise Nevelson a daguerreotype by Southworth and Hawes and photographs by Alfred Stieglitz David Smith Robert Adams and Linda Connor BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
