Robertson Davies's Cornish Trilogy Victor J. Lams, 2008 Robertson Davies's Cornish Trilogy A Reader's Guide is the first book length study of Davies's best work The Rebel Angels What's Bred in the Bone and The Lyre of Orpheus In The Rebel Angels Maria and Darcourt alternate in narrating the novel's theme obsession before escaping from its grip by their mutual assistance while other characters are less fortunate What's Bred in the Bone narrates the artistic development of Canadian painter Francis Cornish which is crowned by his stunning Marriage at Cana an iconographic presentation of his personal myth a color reproduction of Bronzino's Allegory exemplifies their stylistic kinship While The Lyre of Orpheus is ostensibly focused on the completion and staging of an unfinished Hoffmann opera it narrates the ameliorative personal development of the characters who interact during that project

The Collar Sue Sorensen, 2014-12-25 Combining thematic analysis and stimulating close readings The Collar is a wide ranging study of the many ways heroic or comic shrewd or dastardly in which Christian clergy have been represented in literature from George Herbert and Laurence Sterne via Anthony Trollope G K Chesterton T S Eliot and Graham Greene to Susan Howatch and Robertson Davies and in film and television such as Pale Rider The Thorn Birds The Vicar of Dibley and Father Ted Since all Christians are expected to be involved in ministry of some type the assumptions of secular culture about ministers affect more than just clergy Ranging across several nations particularly Britain the U S and Canada denominations and centuries The Collar encourages creative and faithful responses to the challenges of Christian leadership and develops awareness of the times when leadership expectations become too extreme Using the framework of different media to make inquiries about pastoral passion frustration and fallibility Sue Sorensen's well informed sprightly and perceptive book will be helpful to anyone who enjoys evocative literature and film as well as to clergy and those interested in practical theology

A Companion to Literary Biography Richard Bradford, 2018-09-12 An authoritative review of literary biography covering the seventeenth century to the twentieth century A Companion to Literary Biography offers a comprehensive account of literary biography spanning the history of the genre across three centuries The editor an esteemed literary biographer and noted expert in the field has encouraged contributors to explore the theoretical and methodological questions raised by the writing of biographies of writers The text examines how biographers have dealt with the lives of classic authors from Chaucer to contemporary figures such as Kingsley Amis The Companion brings a new perspective on how literary biography enables the reader to deal with the relationship between the writer and their work Literary biography is the most popular form of writing about writing yet it has been largely neglected in the academic community This volume bridges the gap between literary biography as a popular genre and its relevance for the academic study of literature This important work Allows the author of a biography to be treated as part of the process of interpretation and investigates biographical reading as an important aspect of criticism Examines the birth of literary biography at the close of the seventeenth century and considers its expansion through the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries Addresses the status and writing of literary biography from numerous perspectives and with regard to various sources methodologies and theories Reviews the ways in which literary biography has played a role in our perception of writers in the mainstream of the English canon from Chaucer to the present day Written for students at the undergraduate level through postgraduate and doctoral levels as well as academics A Companion to Literary Biography illustrates and accounts for the importance of the literary biography as a vital element of criticism and as an index to our perception of literary history Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen, 2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New Imagining London John Clement Ball, 2004-01-01 Imagining London examines representations of the English metropolis in Canadian West Indian South Asian and second generation black British novels written in the last half of the twentieth century
