Christian Purity Randolph Sinks Foster,1869 The Practical Works of David Clarkson David Clarkson,1865

The Practical Works of David Clarkson David Clarkson (B.D.),1865 The Event of Death: a Phenomenological

Enquiry I. Leman-Stefanovic,2012-12-06 Building upon the preliminary conception of Phenomenology introduced by Heidegger in section II of the Introduction to Sein und zeit 1 one may say that a phenomenology of death would mean to let death as that which shows itself be seen from itself in the very way in which it shows itself from itself Does this mean then that a properly phenomenological description of death may reveal to us what death as a factual event is like in the very way in which it shows itself from itself Although I cannot experience my death in order to describe it may some kind of phenomenological inference or extrapolation² be the condition for a unique and privileged revelation of what it is like to be dead There is an important element of phenomenological description which renders such an extrapolation implausible and it involves what Husserl originally called the reduction to significance or meaning It can never be true for the phenomenologist

1 Heidegger Martin Sein und zeit p 34 et page 58 2 Henry W Johnstone Jr thinks that while one cannot extrapolate from the experience of sleep to the experience of death it may be possible to extrapolate from the phenomenology of sleep to the phenomenology of death Cf H W Johnstone Jr Toward a Phenomenology of Death in Philosophy and Phenomenological Research Vol XXXV No 3 1975 pages 396-7 Cf The Practical Works: Sermons on the new creature, invitation to sinners, &c., &c David Clarkson,1865 Search for Deity; being an inquiry as to the origin of the conception of God. ... With some reflections on a future state J. SULLIVAN (Freethinker.),1859 An Ontology of Consciousness R. Ellis,2013-03-09 The object of this study is to find a coherent theoretical approach to three problems which appear to interrelate in complex ways

1 What is the ontological status of consciousness 2 How can there be unconscious prereflective or self alienated consciousness And 3 Is there a self or ego formed by means of the interrelation of more elementary states of consciousness The motivation for combining such a diversity of difficult questions is that we often learn more by looking at interrelations of problems than we could by viewing them only in isolation The three questions posed here have emerged as especially problematic in the context of twentieth century philosophy

1 The question of the ontological status of consciousness The question What is consciousness is one of the most perplexing in philosophy so perplexing that many have been motivated to proceed as though consciousness did not exist If William James was speaking rhetorically when he said Consciousness does not exist 1 many behaviorists of the recent past were not 2 James meant only to imply that consciousness is not an independently existing soul substance alongside physical substances He did not mean that we do not really have consciousness and he did not provide final resolution for the problem of the causal interrelations between consciousness and the physical realm e.g our bodies Many recent philosophers and psychologists however try to proceed as though these problems did not exist The Little Book of Where to Find It in the Bible Ken Anderson,2021-11-09 Have you ever tried to find a Scripture passage

Balthasar and Prayer Travis LaCouter, 2021-12-02 This study renders an original and constructive Catholic theology of prayer drawing on the work of Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905 1988 Travis LaCouter explores the trinitarian Christological ecclesial anthropological and eschatological dimensions of prayer in Balthasar s theology and shows how these combine to give a powerful account of prayer s proper theological scope and purpose There is also a critical dimension of prayer which is arguably underdeveloped in some of Balthasar s key texts but which LaCouter shows to have significant dialogical potential with contemporary accounts of parrhesia since Foucault This approach demonstrates the centrality of prayer to Balthasar s entire theological system and does so in a way which itself constitutes an exercise in Catholic systematics This study is also distinctive for establishing a method of proceeding through Balthasar s sprawling oeuvre and the similarly vast secondary literature by arguing for three categories of texts in Balthasar s writings and separately three waves of Balthasar readers Thus this study is a resource not just for those interested in prayer but for anyone interested in reading Balthasar today

Ethical Emotivism S.A. Satris, 2012-12-06 The primary contributions of this work are in three overlapping categories i the history of ideas and in particular the history of the idea of value and moral philosophy in both continental and Anglo American traditions ii the identification and interpretation of ethical emotivism as one of the major twentieth century ethical theories and iii the evolution of a philosophically viable form of ethical emotivism as an alternative to utilitarianism and Kantianism In addition along the way many particular points are touched upon e g the relation of Hume to Stevenson and emotivism the facti value distinction and human emotional and social nature The work begins by challenging the received account of the development of twentieth century moral philosophy i e the account that occurs in all the recognized historical books such as G c Kerner The Revolution in Ethical Theory Oxford 1966 G 1 Warnock Contemporary Moral Philosophy London 1967 W D Hudson Modern Moral Philosophy London 1967 Mary Warnock Ethics Since 1900 3rd ed Oxford 1978 and W D Hudson A Century of Moral Philosophy New York 1980 This received account is not only the property of scholars of the history of recent moral philosophy but is also generally assumed by philosophers themselves and is repeated quite uncritically in the literature at large A Course in Miracles Helen Schucman, 2019-03-20 Overcoming fear and guilt is the focus of this acclaimed spiritual guide The three part approach encompasses an explanation of the course s theory exercises and a manual in a question and answer format The Shorter Catechism Robert Steel, 1885 Northfield Echoes Delavan Leonard Pierson, 1894 Northfield Echoes , 1894

Language, Eros, Being Elliot R. Wolfson, 2009-08-25 This long awaited magisterial study an unparalleled blend of philosophy poetry and philology draws on theories of sexuality phenomenology comparative religion philological writings on Kabbalah Russian formalism Wittgenstein Rosenzweig William Blake and the very physics of the time space continuum to establish what will surely be a highwater mark in work on Kabbalah Not only a study of texts Language Eros Being is perhaps the fullest confrontation of the body in Jewish studies if not in religious studies as a whole Elliot R Wolfson explores the complex gender symbolism that permeates Kabbalistic literature Focusing on the nexus of asceticism and eroticism he seeks to define the role of symbolic and poetically charged language in the erotically configured visionary imagination of the medieval Kabbalists He demonstrates that the traditional Kabbalistic view of gender was a monolithic and androcentric one in which the feminine was conceived as being derived from the masculine He does not shrink from the negative implications of this doctrine but seeks to make an honest acknowledgment of it as the first step toward the redemption of an ancient wisdom Comparisons with other mystical traditions including those in Christianity Buddhism and Islam are a remarkable feature throughout the book They will make it important well beyond Jewish studies indeed a must for historians of comparative religion in particular of comparative mysticism Praise for Elliot R Wolfson Through a Speculum That Shines is an important and provocative contribution to the study of Jewish mysticism by one of the major scholars now working in this field Speculum Women in the Old Testament Irene Nowell, 1997 Tells the stories of some of the women in the Old Testament of the Bible including Sarah and Hagar Samson s wife Delilah Ruth and Naomi Bathsheba Queen Esther and others Jesus' Course in Miracles , 2000 The JCIM derives from the Hugh Lynn Cayce version of the Course which was completed by Helen Schucman and Bill Thetford in 1972 Later editing by others removed about 25% of the material contained in the first five chapters and made numerous editorial changes which affected both the tone and the content of the message Many students consider study of the unabridged JCIM version to be indispensable in their curriculum Text only This edition does not include the Workbook or the Teachers Manual There is a good explanation of the JCIM on our website at <http://jcim.net/sacredsource.html> 306 pages plus 102 page appendix comparing the JCIM with the popular commercial version of the Course The Universalist Quarterly and General Review , 1883 From Temple to Church Johannes Hahn, Stephen Emmel, Ulrich Gotter, 2008 Destruction of temples and their transformation into churches are central symbols of change in religious environment socio political system and public perception in late antiquity Archaeologists historians and historians of religion seek an appropriate larger perspective on the phenomenon a oetemple destructiona A Briefe Concordance to the
