Searching the Scriptures Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza, Shelly Matthews, Ann Graham Brock, 1994 DO MEN AND WOMEN read the Scriptures differently Do they bring different concerns and presuppositions to the text use different methods read with different eyes And should they These are some of the basic questions addressed in this book Searching the Scriptures is a feminist introduction and it differs from any book in that genre ever written It charts a comprehensive approach to feminist interpretation and prepares the way for a second volume which will engage in critical feminist commentary on the Christian Testament and other early Christian writings The two volume commentary project grew out of a five year long series of discussions in the Women in the Biblical World section of the Society of Biblical Literature involving feminist scholars from all over the world Their aim was to explore the ambivalent feminist legacy of Elizabeth Cady Stanton s The Woman s Bible the centenary of which falls in 1995 Like that volume Searching the Scriptures underlines the political character of biblical interpretation However it does not adopt the conceptual and methodological approach of The Woman s Bible nor like another recent study does it limit its theoretical focus to gender Rather it seeks to be inclusive ecumenical and multicultural It brings together the best in contemporary feminist biblical and historical studies to explore critical issues of perspective method and communication This first volume explores the many facets of feminist hermeneutics outlines modes of enquiry and theological approaches samples the history of interpretation by women and shows possible ways forward for feminist biblical studies for both worship and teaching

Preaching the Word Karoline M. Lewis,2023-04-11 The question of what to do with the biblical text in the sermon is perennial Biblical scholarship constantly evolves and grows making it hard even for biblical scholars themselves to apply the latest insights in their preaching The average pastor doesn t have time to keep up with the changes in biblical studies and as a result often defaults to interpretive methods learned in increasingly distant seminary years Preaching the Word addresses those needs by surveying recent developments in biblical studies with an eye to applying them in preaching the Gospel of John Noted New Testament Scholar and homiletician Karoline Lewis lays out these recent interpretive tools and methods demonstrating their application to preaching using specific passages in the Fourth Gospel
