Searching For Great Ideas Readings Past And Present:

Searching for Great Ideas Tom Klein, Bruce Edwards, Tom Wymer, 1998 SEARCHING FOR GREAT IDEAS READINGS PAST AND PRESENT shares two guiding principles with its predecessor Great Ideas Conversations Between Past and Present that the development of clear thinking critical understanding and effective writing skills requires nourishing food for thought and that because the problems we face today are rooted in the past we can understand them better when we see them in a historical context One of the most significant developments in the history of ideas which this text like the previous one attempts to reveal is changes in attitudes in the authority of the past The new title clarifies this concern while it preserves the essence of what the former text implied by the subtitle a searching and continuing conversation about questions as well as answers to some of the most pressing problems of the last 3500 years Teacher's Guide for "In Search of April Raintree" and "April Raintree" Pat Adamson, Lauree Kopetsky, 2008-01-01 This teachers guide includes instruction and activities for In Search of April Raintree and April Raintree in one resource In the guide you will find ideas for using the book in the classroom activities for reading and responding questions for discussion culminating activities related websites and much more Theory and Praxis Prafulla C. Kar, K. C. Baral, Sura Prasad Rath, 2003 This Volume Comprehensively Critiques The Discipline Of English Studies Its History Institutional Contexts And Pedagogical And Curricular Imperatives Interrogating The Intricate Processes Of Knowledge Formation In Both Colonial And Postcolonial Settings The Essays Included In This Study Address Both Specific Questions About English Studies And Broader Issues Relating To Social And Political Ideologies The Book Provides A Major Resource To Both Literary Scholars From Sister Disciplines Reading Researchers in Search of Common Ground Rona F. Flippo, 2012-03-22 In Reading Researchers in Search of Common Ground Second Edition Rona F Flippo revisits her groundbreaking Expert Study in which she set out to find common ground among experts in the much fragmented field of reading research The original edition featuring contributions from participants in the Expert Study commentary from additional distinguished literacy scholars with specialized experiences and vantage points from which to view it and recommendations for use of its findings was published in 2001 and has become a classic in the field The Expert Study s findings and discussions related to it remain provocative viable and highly relevant Taking a fresh look at it and its current implications for literacy education and common ground in light of the newest thinking and research of today the Second Edition includes four new chapters from leaders in the field who discuss the Study from their unique vantage points literacy trends emergent writing development a comprehensive literacy curriculum and a comparative analysis of the study s findings and recommendations It is a must read resource for the entire literacy community researchers teacher educators graduate students administrators practitioners and policymakers The Structure of Being and the Search for the Good Dominic O'Meara, 2024-10-28 The essays in this book discuss a number of the central metaphysical and ethical themes that engaged the minds of Platonist philosophers during late Antiquity and the early Middle Ages One particular theme is that of the structure of reality with the associated questions of the relations between soul and body and between intelligible and sensible reality and the existence of mathematical objects Other topics relate to evil and beauty political life and its purpose the philosophical search for the absolute Good and how one can speak about this Absolute and have union with it Going from Plato to Eriugena the ways in which Platonist philosophers understood and developed these themes are analysed and compared

Motivating Teen and Preteen Readers Jeffrey Pflaum,2011-08-16 Computer games video games Internet iPods DVDs CDs texting social media and surfing No wonder reading has a hard time competing for adolescents attention Research studies find that interest in reading diminishes after the fourth grade and continues through high school. Throw in a testing culture with all its drill lessons and you still wind up with 50% of college freshman unable to comprehend the textbooks. Whatever happened to motivation? You can lead a horse to water but...

Motivating Teen and Preteen Readers: How Teachers and Parents Can Lead the Way contains over 1,000 diverse, original, fun, creative, absurd, challenging questions on reading that will inspire adolescent reading lives from the inside out. The four books of questions contained in this volume are designed to help kids help themselves find their ways to a desire to read. Weekly questions, discussions, and raps a one-year journey into the worlds of reading, compel preteens and teens to face their demons peacefully and to re-create a passion for reading of course with a little guidance from their friends, teachers, parents, and this book. Check out some questions: What was the first book you remember reading by yourself? What thoughts are triggered by this book? What feelings come back to you? Think of a word that makes you feel good. Silently say the word over and over again to yourself. Describe what you experienced. Athletes say they're in the zone when playing at their best. Describe your reading when you're reading in the zone. Reading everyday quietly changes your world. Explain. Mind pictures reading's little miracles. Explain.

Finding Facts (Reading Level 3-4.5) | Short Passages | Comprehension Activities MJ Owen, 2022-05-07

Reading Skills Activities: Reading Comprehension Finding Facts Improve Overall Reading Comprehension with Targeted Specific Skill Practice. Focusing on one comprehension skill at a time gives students the opportunity to master that skill and improve their general reading and comprehension skills. Finding Facts: Being able to find the facts in a story is a basic yet essential comprehension skill. It helps to lay the foundation for success in mastering other comprehension skills. You may want to introduce this skill by explaining to students that facts are small bits of information that make up the whole of a story. Skill Specific Activities: There are 15 high-interest short stories in this selection that include a variety of fiction and non-fiction topics. The follow-up questions guide students to find the facts. The facts might be who, what, where, when, or why. Or they might be the names of people and places, dates, times, and numbers. Each story is numbered instead of having a title. The last question for each story asks the students to give the story a title. This important activity helps to determine the student's level of understanding the story's main idea. Visual Lesson: Each story has an engaging illustration designed to bring the story to life and help capture the interest of reluctant readers. To help sharpen inference skills, students can be asked to use the illustration to predict what the story is about. Teaching Opportunities: These targeted activities are great for one-on-one intervention, small groups of students at multiple skill levels, or whole class participation. Can be used for remediation, review, and transition classes. Details: Each short story is between 140 and 160 words and is written at a 3.0 to 4.5 reading level according to the Flesch-Kincaid Readability Scale. The interest level is grades 4 and up. Contents: Include 15 high-interest short stories, 15 pages of skill-specific questions focusing on Finding Facts. Answer Key.
