Knopf-Newman, 2011-11-21 Explores how American youth are indoctrinated with Zionist mythology and how to intervene in that process by teaching about Palestine It argues that as the relationship between Zionist education and the Israel lobby continues to be strong it is necessary to correct the misrepresentations that infiltrate Western culture A White Lie Madeeha Hafez Albatta, 2020-10-19 This first narrative in the Women's Voices from Gaza Series turns the clock back more than ninety years and invites readers on a journey of reimagining a once upon a time in Palestine Madeeha Hafez Albatta's story recounts a life of happiness uncertainty loss and also ultimately of pride resistance and hope Weaving together many narrative threads A White Lie unearths a version of history long excluded from mainstream discourse illuminating a vibrant culture rich community relations old traditions and grand resistance Madeeha was born and raised in Khan Younis a town in the southern part of the Gaza Strip and her life took her along with her family across mandatory Palestine to Egypt Jordan Syria Lebanon Tunis the United States Germany Greece Austria and Canada In 1938 Madeeha had to resort to tricking her family into allowing her to attend college That white lie changed her life forever She became a teacher while still in her teens and then the principal of a school while in her early twenties As a teacher and headmistress a campaigner for rights an activist and community organizer a mother and a women's unique and underrepresented perspectives on the social material and political realities of Palestinian life Foreword by Ilan Pappé

The Second Palestinian Intifada Ramzy Baroud, 2006-07-20 This is a comprehensive account of the momentous events which shaped the political landscape not only of Palestine and Israel but of the entire Middle East region Addressing the most controversial issues including the alarming escalation in suicide bombings and the construction of the Separation Wall he reports on the huge rate of unemployment and hunger in the Occupied Territories statistics so critical that NGOs compare their magnitude to African nations such as the Congo From the brutality of the Israeli army to the ever compromising nature of the Palestinian Authority few are spared Ramzy Baroud's thoughtful critique The book is clear and concise with one chapter dedicated to the major events of each year and includes a comprehensive timeline Syria

Ballots Or Bullets? Carsten Wieland, 2006 Bashar al Asad unlike any other Arab leader publicly announced his opposition to the war in Iraq This made the Syrian president popular in the streets but brought him into open confrontation with the US For a time it seemed that the US would invade or subvert the regime or institute a killing regimen of sanctions The assassination of Lebanese Prime Minister Rafiq Hariri made things worse with observers including the UN pointing the finger at Damascus Syrian troops were forced to withdraw from Lebanon where they had been stationed for nearly three decades Today Bashar is facing the toughest challenge of his career caught between Syrian hardliners and an increasingly impatient opposition And what of the 18 million people of Syria Will this country descend into chaos and violence Or will it progress toward pluralism and economic progress Syria Ballots or Bullets delivers surprising insights into one of the most obscure countries in the world Contemporary State Terrorism Richard Jackson, Eamon Murphy, Scott Poynting, 2009-09-10 This volume aims to bring the state back into terrorism studies and fill the notable gap that currently exists in our understanding of the ways in which states employ terrorism as a political strategy of internal governance or foreign policy Within this broader context the volume has a number of specific aims First it aims to make the argument that state terrorism is a valid and analytically useful concept which can do much to illuminate our understanding of state repression and governance and illustrate the varieties of actors modalities aims forms and outcomes of this form of contemporary political violence Secondly by discussing a rich and diverse set of empirical case studies of contemporary state terrorism this volume explores and tests theoretical notions generates new questions and provides a resource for further research Thirdly it contributes to a critical normative approach to the study of terrorism more broadly and challenges dominant approaches and perspectives which assume that states particularly Western states are primarily victims and not perpetrators of terrorism Given the scarceness of current and past research on state terrorism this volume will make a genuine contribution to the wider field particularly in terms of ongoing efforts to generate more critical approaches to the study of political terrorism This book will be of much interest to students of critical terrorism studies critical security studies terrorism and political violence and political theory in general Richard Jackson is Reader in International Politics at the University of Wales

Aberystwyth He is the founding editor of the Routledge journal Critical Studies on Terrorism and the convenor of the BISA Critical Studies on Terrorism Working Group CSTWG Eamon Murphy is Professor of History and International Relations at Curtin University of Technology in Western Australia Scott Poynting is Professor in Sociology at Manchester Metropolitan University

The Search for Peace in the Arab-Israeli Conflict Terje Rød-Larsen, Nur Laiq, Fabrice Aidan, 2014 The Search for Peace in the Middle East provides an annotated overview of attempts to make peace in the region including all relevant documents related to the Arab Israeli conflict over the past century since the Sykes Picot Agreement of 1916 and a full set of accompanying maps specially made for this edition

The Ethnic Cleansing of Palestine Ilan Pappé, 2007-09-01 The book that is providing a storm of controversy from Israel's bravest historian John Pilger Renowned Israeli historian Ilan Pappé's groundbreaking work on the formation of the State of Israel Along with the late Edward Said Ilan Pappé is the most eloquent writer of Palestinian history NEW STATESMAN Between 1947 and 1949 over 400 Palestinian villages were deliberately destroyed civilians were massacred and around a million men women and children were expelled from their homes at gunpoint Denied for almost six decades had it happened today it could only have been called ethnic cleansing Decisively debunking the myth that the Palestinian population left of their own accord in the course of this war Ilan Pappé offers impressive archival evidence to demonstrate that from its very inception a central plank in Israel's founding ideology was the forcible removal of the indigenous population Indispensable for anyone interested in the current crisis in the Middle East Ilan Pappé is Israel's bravest most principled most incisive historian JOHN PILGER Pappé has opened up an important new line of inquiry into the vast and fateful subject of the Palestinian refugees His book is rewarding in other ways It has at times an elegiac even sentimental character recalling the lost obliterated life of the Palestinian Arabs and imagining or regretting what Pappé believes could have been a better land of Palestine TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT A major intervention in an argument that will and must continue There's no hope of lasting Middle East peace while the ghosts of 1948 still walk INDEPENDENT

Globalization and Terrorism Jamal R. Nassar, 2009-07-16 Courageously stepping into charged terrain this book casts a clear light on globalization and terrorism for what they are not what some may wish them to be Jamal R Nassar carefully defines these twin concepts placing them in historical as well as political context Woven throughout the book is his central theme of the migration of dreams and nightmares As some are able to take advantage of the opportunities of globalization leaving others behind they leave behind a legacy of unrealistic dreams These unfulfilled hopes of the poor and oppressed often transform themselves into nightmares for the wealthy and powerful This vicious cycle the author argues is often enhanced by globalization and effected by terrorism Focusing on the key case studies of Palestine and Northern Ireland Nassar applies their lessons to other examples of conflict including Iraq Afghanistan the Congo Chechnya and Colombia in order to internationalize our understanding of how globalization and terrorism operate in a range of situations He also devotes a chapter to Islamist terrorism in a tour de force of incisiveness and balance This book considers globalization and terrorism not only from the perspective of the major powers but also introduces the views of those dominated by forces beyond their control Yet even as the author offers a profound critique of Western hegemony he conveys respect and hope for an enlightened global interdependence embracing the power of the dream over the nightmare Justice on the Cross

Kathleen Christison,2023-03-09 At its heart liberation theology is a modern theology of resistance to the oppression imposed by colonialist and post colonialist systems and even by churches that cooperate with secular centers of power to oppress the poor and disadvantaged It is a grassroots social justice theology a cri de c ur that seeks to give spiritual succor and hope to those living in seemingly hopeless circumstances Palestinians a people whose suffering has largely been forgotten by the world since Israel s establishment and who are most often stereotyped as extremists and enemies of Israel with no legitimate claim to their own homeland are among the world s most marginalized populations The small Palestinian Christian community an indigenous population descended from Jesus s first followers has created a liberation theology for the Palestinian context that reaches out to its own Christian faithful and their Muslim compatriots This is a nonviolent political theological resistance that follows Jesus s teaching that God is present with all God s children and heeds Jesus s gospel injunctions to comfort the suffering and let the oppressed go free For Palestinians their very survival in the land is resistance to Israel s efforts to remove them and liberation theology sustains their resistance Jesus was the first liberation theologian

Apartheid in Palestine Ghada Ageel,2016-01-18 Of all the crimes to which Palestinians have been subjected through a century of bitter tragedy perhaps none are more cruel than the silencing of their voices The suffering has been most extreme criminal and grotesque in Gaza where Ghada Ageel was one of the victims from childhood This collection of essays is a poignant cry for justice far too long delayed Noam Chomsky There are more than two sides to the conflict between Palestine and Israel There are millions Millions of lives voices and stories behind the enduring struggle in Israel and Palestine Yet the easy binary of Palestine vs Israel on which the media so often relies for context effectively silences the lived experiences of people affected by the strife Ghada Ageel sought leading experts Palestinian and Israeli academic and activist to gather stories that humanize the historic processes of occupation displacement colonization and most controversially apartheid Historians scholars and students of colonialism and Israel Palestine studies and anyone interested in more nuanced debate will want to read this book Foreword by Richard Falk Contributors Yasmeen Abu Laban Ghada Ageel Huwaida Arraf Abigail B Bakan Ramzy Baroud Samar El Bekai James Cairns Edward C Corrigan Susan Ferguson Keith Hammond Rela Mazali Sherene Razack Tali Shapiro Reem Skeik Rafeef Ziadah
