

Myth and Mysticism, History and Science

The book cover features a large, detailed image of the Moon's surface, covered in craters and illuminated by a bright light source from the left. In the center, a circular, glowing green and blue portal or tunnel leads into the distance. A silhouette of a person stands at the entrance of this portal, looking out. Several black birds are flying around the central portal. The title 'SECRETS OF THE MOON' is written in large, white, 3D block letters across the center of the portal. The subtitle 'Myth and Mysticism, History and Science' is at the top in a smaller, italicized font. The author's name 'By Andrew Osio' is at the bottom.

Secrets Of The Moon:

Secrets of the Moon Stephen Hunt, Because sometimes insanity and genius are indistinguishable Agatha Witchley used to be a spy in the Cold War but now she's locked up in the UK's premier maximum security mental institution She believes that the ghosts of the celebrity dead visit her padded cell and whisper the world's secrets in her ears Which is a big problem for the British government because she's the only one who can help them when an American billionaire is murdered in London in one of the strangest killings yet The Home Secretary needs the case locked down and solved before the entrepreneur's death becomes public knowledge and economic chaos ensues The woman he has in mind for the job might be paranoid she might be lethal she might half insane and drawing a pension but it's amazing how you can forgive that in a genius when it's a genius's help you need Yes the security forces need Agatha Witchley again It's just the ghosts of Churchill Elvis and Groucho Marx they could do without
