Secured Transactions in Personal Property Robert L. Jordan, William D. Warren, 1987 Florida Law of Secured Transactions in Personal Property Winton E. Williams, 1980 Secured Transactions in Personal Property Nathan Levy, 1989 Secured Transactions in Personal Property Brian Siegel, 1979-01-01 Pennsylvania Enforcing Secured Transactions on Personal Property Anthony J. Krol, Professional Education Systems, 1984 Sales. Negotiable instruments. Secured transactions in personal property. Security transactions in real property Bernard Ernest Witkin, 2005 Towards Reforming the Legal Framework for Secured Transactions in Nigeria Chima Williams Iheme, 2016-08-16 This book offers a valuable guide to one of the most challenging areas of commercial law now frequently referred to as secured transactions with a focus on Nigerian Canadian and United States perspectives A debtor s ability to provide collateral influences not only the cost of the money borrowed but also in many cases whether secured lenders are willing to offer credit at all. The book proposes that increasing access to and indeed lowering the cost of credit could tremendously boost economic development while at the same time arguing that this would best be achieved if the legal framework for secured transactions in Nigeria and of course any other country with similar experiences were designed to allow the use of personal property and fixtures to secure credit. Similarly the creation priority perfection and enforcement of security interests in personal property should be simplified and supported by a framework that ensures that neither the interests of secured lenders nor debtors are hampered so as to guarantee the continuous availability of affordable credit as well as debtors willingness to borrow and do business. The book further argues that in addition to the obvious preference for real property over personal property by secured lenders due to the unreformed secured transactions legal framework in Nigeria its compartmentalized nature has also resulted in unpredictability in commerce and the concomitant effects of poor access to credit. Through the comparative research conducted in this book utilizing the UCC Article 9 and Ontario PPSA as benchmarks the author provides reformers with a repository of tested secured transactions law solutions which law reformers in the Commonwealth countries in Africa and beyond as well as the business community will find valuable in dealing with issues that stem from secured transactions.

The Florida Law of Secured Transactions in Personal Property Winton E. Williams, 1992-12 This three volume looseleaf treatise comprehensively discusses attachment perfection and enforcement of security interests in personal property under Florida law. The uniform and non uniform provisions in Florida s Article 9 as well as the body of personal property law existing outside the UCC are covered in the work.

Security Interests in Personal Property Randal C. Picker, Douglas G. Baird, Thomas H. Jackson, 2002 This law school casebook focuses on Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code dealing with secured transactions in personal property. It incorporates and discusses recent revisions to the Code which made the most significant changes in three decades. Part of the University Casebook Casebook Series it features expertly edited cases and problems for classroom discussion.

Secured Transactions Law in Asia Louise Gullifer, Dora Neo, 2021-03-25 This collection of essays offers a unique insight and overview of the secured transactions law in many of the most important countries in Asia as well as reflections on the need for benefits of and challenges for reform in this area of the law. The book provides a mixture of general reflections on the history successes and challenges of secured transaction law reform and critical discussion of the law in a number of Asian countries. In some of the countries the law has already been reformed or reform is under way and here the reforms are considered critically with recommendations for future work. In other countries the law is not yet reformed and the existing law is analysed so as to determine what reform is desirable and whether it is likely to take place. First this book will enable those engaging with the law in Asia to understand better the contours of the law in both civil and common law jurisdictions. Second it provides analytical insights into why secured transactions law reform happens or does not happen the different methods by which reform takes place the benefits of reform and the difficulties that need to be overcome for successful reform Third it discusses the need for reform where none has yet taken place and critically assesses the reforms which have already been enacted or are being considered In addition to providing a forum for discussion in relation to the countries in question this book is also a timely contribution to the wider debate on secured transactions law reform which is taking place around the world

Security Interests in Personal Property Randal C. Picker, Douglas G. Baird, Thomas H. Jackson, 2009 This casebook focuses on Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code dealing with secured transactions in personal property It incorporates and discusses recent revisions to the Code which made the most significant changes in three decades The Fourth Edition includes early leading cases interpreting Revised Article 9

Personal property law in Nigeria Mike A.A. Ozekhome, 2019 This book addresses core issues of personal property law in Nigeria from a comparative perspective It offers a detailed account of the laws governing personal property and the different lightweight reforms undertaken mainly through case law before the enactment of the Secured Transactions in Movable Assets Act in 2017 The book draws insights from the United States UCC article 9 being unarguably the first law that introduced the concept of modern secured transactions law and was influential to many common and civilian law systems in reforming their personal property laws Given that personal property law is fairly new in Nigeria and also in Africa in general the main aim of the book is to provide judges and academic researchers with a rich collection of tested solutions from jurisdictions that have experimented with modern secured transactions law for several decades The primary and secondary works that were referenced in the book have tracked the different epochal shifts in legal thinking and their significances This may assist scholars and judges in Nigeria to come up with bespoke interpretations of the Act and solutions to underlying problems on credit and security that will satisfy the local conditions as opposed to copying the unaltered solutions from the United States and other advanced systems
