National Security In The Third World

Abdul-Monem M. Al-Mashat,2019-03-13 For nations of the Third World national security poses serious dilemmas Unlike Western nations less developed countries must balance the complex and often contradictory requirements of socioeconomic and political development with problems of internal stability and the requirements of national defense For these countries a concept of national s Sustainable Development in Third World Countries Valentine U. James,1996-02-13 Sustainable development has been approached from many viewpoints over the past 15 years without a concise or precise definition of what sustainable development really stands for James has solicited contributions from an international group of experts who write about aspects of sustainable development from many different disciplines Their consensus is that sustainability depends upon concerted development across the spectrum of socioeconomic factors that affect the environment natural resources health education and welfare of the populations in the emerging nations The necessity of incorporating indigenous knowledge with technological and international expertise has become crucial

Challenges to American National Security in the 1990s M. Nacht,A. Nichols,G.H. Quester,J.J. Weltman,2012-12-06 The decade of the 1990s offers a chance to build a new and better international order What policy choices will this decade pose for the United States This wide ranging volume of essays imaginatively addresses these crucial issues The peaceful revolutions of 1989 1990 in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe have swept away the foundations of the Cold War The Eastern European nations are free Europe is no longer divided Germany is united The Soviet threat to Western Europe is ending with the collapse of the Warsaw Pact and the withdrawals and asymmetrical cuts of Soviet forces And U S Soviet rivalry in the Third World is giving way to cooperation in handling conflicts as in Iraq and elsewhere Much of course remains uncertain and unsettled What sort of Soviet Union will emerge from the ongoing turmoil with what political and economic system and what state structure How far and how soon will the Eastern Euro pean states succeed in developing pluralist democracies and market economies Are the changes irreversible Certainly there will be turmoil backsliding and failures but a return to the Cold War hardly seems likely
