Athan G. Theoharis

Seeds Of Repression:

Seeds of Repression Athan G. Theoharis, 1977 Perilous Times Geoffrey R. Stone, 2004 Geoffrey Stone's Perilous Times incisively investigates how the First Amendment and other civil liberties have been compromised in America during wartime. Stone delineates the consistent suppression of free speech in six historical periods from the Sedition Act of 1798 to the Vietnam War and ends with a coda that examines the state of civil liberties in the Bush era. Full of fresh legal and historical insight, Perilous Times magisterially presents a dramatic cast of characters who influenced the course of history over a two hundred year period from the presidents Adams, Lincoln, Wilson, Roosevelt and Nixon to the Supreme Court justices Taney, Holmes, Brandeis, Black and Warren to the resisters Clement Vallandigham, Emma Goldman, Fred Korematsu and David Dellinger. Filled with dozens of rare photographs, posters and historical illustrations, Perilous Times is resonant in its call for a new approach in our response to grave crises.

Theoharis, 1971 Embryogenesis Ken-Ichi Sato, 2012-04-20 The book Embryogenesis is a compilation of cutting edge views of current trends in modern developmental biology focusing on gametogenesis, fertilization, early and/or late embryogenesis in animals, plants and some other small organisms. The Politics of Racism Ann Gomer Sunahara, 2020-03-31 The Politics of Racism: The Uprooting of Japanese Canadians During the Second World War is the first book to fully document the politics behind the 1942 expulsion order that saw 20,000 Japanese Canadians evicted from their homes in British Columbia and sent inland to work camps, detention centres and farms in Alberta and Manitoba. The book details the relationship between racism and political expediency and shows how political parties and the affairs of the nation were controlled by a small group of politicians who scapegoated minorities to hang on to power. Most alarmingly, The Politics of Racism shows how easily Canadians allowed themselves to be manipulated by a political process that used fear and war hysteria in a very cynical and calculated way. Ann Sunahara has used previously classified government documents and the wartime records of the Liberal government to reveal a startling new portrait of political connivance that shows Mackenzie King bowing to the pressures of a small number of B.C. politicians who saw the Japanese problem as a useful tool to enhance their status and win favours in Ottawa. Branded as traitors in the eyes of many of their countrymen, unaware that the military had opposed their uprooting without political friends and allies except for the CCF, the Japanese Canadians were powerless, a muffled minority within a country at war. Ann Sunahara has woven together her analysis of government documents with the personal memories of victims of that shameful period. The accounts of the victims and the official records provide a poignant and powerful indictment of the politicians who used racism and fear to further their own careers and of a society whose indifference let it
