Naked Seeing Christopher Hatchell, 2014 Buddhism is in many ways a visual tradition with its well known practices of visualization its visual arts its epistemological writings that discuss the act of seeing and its literature filled with images and metaphors of light Some Buddhist traditions are also visionary advocating practices by which meditators seek visions that arise before their eyes Naked Seeing investigates such practices in the context of two major esoteric traditions the Wheel of Time Kalacakra and the Great Perfection Dzogchen Both of these experimented with sensory deprivation and developed yogas involving long periods of dwelling in dark rooms or gazing at the open sky These produced unusual experiences of seeing which were used to pursue some of the classic Buddhist questions about appearances emptiness and the nature of reality Along the way these practices gave rise to provocative ideas and suggested that rather than being apprehended through internal insight religious truths might also be seen in the exterior world realized through the gateway of the eyes Christopher Hatchell presents the intellectual and literary histories of these practices and also explores the meditative techniques and physiology that underlie their distinctive visionary experiences The book also offers for the first time complete English translations of three major Tibetan texts on visionary practice a Kalacakra treatise by Yumo Mikyo Dorje The Lamp Illuminating Emptiness a Nyingma Great Perfection work called The Tantra of the Blazing Lamps and a Bon Great Perfection work called Advice on the Six Lamps along with a detailed commentary on this by Drugom Gyalwa Yungdrung

The Thinking Historian Eric W. Sager, 2025-01-27 What is history What are historians doing when we create our histories The need for answers is more urgent than ever We live in an era when history is often rejected or ignored and when all teachers of history confront formidable challenges In the culture of screen capitalism and social media historical knowledge is evaded in an expanding present minded consciousness How can history be defended and what is it that we are defending This book argues that history is a mode of thinking a form of imaginative reasoning with its own informal logic In non technical language and using examples from important works of history the book defines core elements in historical thinking These include contingency complexity temporality parts and wholes consilience perspectives analogy and abduction These elements are subsumed into the concept of imaginative reasoning The overall argument echoes the work of hermeneutic philosophers History is a disciplined imagination tempered and empowered by its forms of reasoning It embraces ethical imperatives that the historian has a duty to declare Equipped with such understanding historians may answer the many rejections of history and secure its place in our shared futures

Brownson's Review, 1861

The Semantics of English Prepositions Andrea Tyler, Vyvyan Evans, 2003-06-05 Using a cognitive linguistics perspective this book provides a comprehensive theoretical analysis of the semantics of English prepositions All English prepositions originally coded spatial relations between two physical entities while retaining their original meaning prepositions have also developed a rich set of non spatial meanings In this study Tyler and Evans argue that all these meanings are systematically grounded in the nature of human spatio physical experience The original spatial scenes provide the foundation for the extension of meaning from the spatial to the more abstract This analysis articulates an alternative methodology that distinguishes between a conventional meaning and an interpretation produced for understanding the preposition in context as well as establishing which of several competing senses should be taken as the primary sense Together the methodology and framework are sufficiently articulated to generate testable predictions and allow the analysis to be applied to additional prepositions

The Vindication of the World Malcolm Keating, Matthew R. Dasti, 2024-06-28 Stephen Phillips has devoted his career to excavating some of the most valuable gems of Indian philosophy and bringing them into conversation with contemporary thought This volume honors him and follows his lead by continuing his lifelong project faithfully interpreting Sanskrit texts to think along with their authors about ideas that still perplex us today It features ten new essays focusing on epistemology logic and metaphysics from outstanding philosophers and scholars of Sanskrit philosophy with contributions varying in methodology both historical and cross cultural Further in addition to essays on Nyaya and Advaita Vedanta it engages with Navya Nyaya a new Nyaya an important but understudied part of Indian philosophy Through these investigations in conversation with Phillips's groundbreaking work the contributors show the value of cross cultural engagement for philosophical progress The Vindication of the World will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in Indian philosophy comparative philosophy and more generally epistemology logic and metaphysics

Racial Conflict and Healing Andrew Sung Park, 2009-12-01 A Korean theologian approaches the issue of racial conflict including discrimination between minority communities and constructs a theology of seeing that aims to heal the ruptures of racism As ethnic tensions continue to simmer and occasionally erupt immigration and affirmative action laws are hotly debated in every ethnic minority African Americans Hispanic Americans Native Americans even Asian Americans the so called model minority struggle in the racially charged atmosphere of contemporary America In the aftermath of the Los Angeles riots of 1992 and the ensuing violence against Korean Americans Andrew Sung Park seeks a theological model that will help transform a society of oppression injustice and violence into a community of equity fairness and mutual consideration Park emphasizes that such a transformation does not and cannot begin only with good intentions but must be grounded in an understanding of all the socio economic and cultural issues that lead to oppression and tension Using the Korean term han to describe the deep seated suffering of racial oppression he then suggests resources for understanding and healing in both Christian and Asian traditions Part I of Racial Conflict and Healing describes the status quo from a Korean American perspective including discrimination against ethnic minorities and the discrimination they inflict on one another In Parts II and III Park suggests that American society as a whole needs a superordinate vision to form a unified community

Park argues that our profoundly individualistic society must learn to understand an idea of self that is formed through relationship with others Finally in Part IV he presents a theological model a theology of seeing as a way to genuinely understand the other and to promote healing within our society The Biblical "One Flesh" Theology of Marriage as Constituted in Genesis 2:24 Rene Gehring,2013-08-12 This book provides a thorough study of the sole biblical foundation of marriage as given in the short description of Genesis 2 24 For this reason a wipffpass Brownson's quarterly review ,1861
