Macionis, Nijole V. Benokraitis, Peter Urmetzer, Bruce Ravelli, 2009-03-18 Seeing Ourselves is the only reader that systematically weaves together three types of articles classic contemporary and cross cultural Classic articles will provide you with sociological statements of recognized importance and lasting significance Contemporary articles focus on current sociological issues controversies and applications They will show you the real world of sociologists at work and demonstrate the importance of on going research Cross cultural articles cast sociological insights about the world s striking cultural diversity Together these articles offer the most comprehensive coverage of any sociology reader      American Indian Higher Educational Experiences Terry E. Huffman, 2008 American Indian Higher Educational Experiences examines the multiple ways sixty nine American Indian college students construct and use their ethnic identity while enrolled in a predominantly non Indian university Although their cultural backgrounds and orientations differ widely for all of these sixty nine students there exists a profound connection between how they view their personal ethnicity and how they interpret their experiences in academia      Perspectives in Social Research Methods and Analysis Howard Lune, Enrique S. Pumar, Ross Koppel, 2010 This book shows students the steps involved in the research process the various strategies for conducting a valid social inquiry and most importantly the persuasiveness and elegance of reliable social research It highlights the link between academic research and the real world Included are carefully chosen examples of each of the major methodological techniques survey interviews fieldwork observations experiments content analysis secondary analysis and program evaluation Also included are selections on sampling strategies research ethics and both qualitative and quantitative data analysis      Muslim Diaspora in the West Haideh Moghissi, Halleh Ghorashi, 2016-04-29 In view of the growing influence of religion in public life on the national and international scenes Muslim Diaspora in the West constitutes a timely contribution to scholarly debates and a response to concerns raised in the West about Islam and Muslims within diaspora It begins with the premise that diasporic communities of Islamic cultures while originating in countries dominated by Islamic laws and religious practices far from being uniform are in fact shaped in their existence and experiences by a complex web of class ethnic gender religious and regional factors as well as the cultural and social influences of their adopted homes Within this context this volume brings together work from experts within Europe and North America to explore the processes that shape the experiences and challenges faced by migrants and refugees who originate in countries of Islamic cultures Presenting the latest research from a variety of locations on both sides of The Atlantic Muslim Diaspora in the West addresses the realities of diasporic life for self identified Muslims addressing questions of integration rights and equality before the law and challenging stereotypical views of Muslims As such it will appeal to scholars with interests in race and ethnicity cultural media and gender studies and migration

Japanese Diasporas Nobuko Adachi, 2006-10-03 Japanese Diasporas examines the relationship of overseas Japanese and their descendents Nikkei with their home and host nations focusing on the political social and economic struggles of Nikkei Frequently abandoned by their homeland and experiencing alienation in their host nations the diaspora have attempted to carve out lives between two worlds Examining Nikkei communities and Japanese migration to Manchuria China Canada the Philippines Singapore and Latin America the book compares Nikkei experiences with those of Japanese transnational migrants living abroad The authors connect theoretical issues of ethnic identity with the Japanese and Nikkei cases analyzing the hidden dynamics of the social construction of race ethnicity and homeland and suggesting some of the ways in which diasporas are transforming global society today Presenting new perspectives on socio political and cultural issues of transnational migrants and diaspora communities in an economically intertwined world this book will be of great interest to scholars of diaspora studies and Japanese studies
