editor's object to state and account for those general facts that in his opinion are the dominating powers in all European history. This he has after thirty years' study of documents, books, and historic maps, together with extensive travels in Europe and America, tried to do in his General History, two vols. now in the press. On the basis of the material and thought so collected from books and life and professional teaching of history, the editor has drawn up his plan for the present work.
