Herbert Read and Selected Works Herbert Read,2022-07-30 Herbert Read and Selected Works includes four of Herbert Read s most seminal works A Coat of Many Colours Occasional Essays The English Vision An Anthology The Tenth Muse Essays in Criticism and The Politics of the Unpolitical This collection also includes the title Herbert Read A Memorial Symposium a collection of essays that illustrates the many different aspects and achievements of Read s career Beyond Practical Virtue Joel A. Johnson,2007 Why hasn t democracy been embraced worldwide as the best form of government Aesthetic critics of democracy such as Carlyle and Nietzsche have argued that modern democracy by removing the hierarchical institutions that once elevated society s character turns citizens into bland mediocre souls Joel A Johnson now offers a rebuttal to these critics drawing surprising inspiration from American literary classics Addressing the question from a new perspective Johnson takes a fresh look at the worth of liberal democracy in these uncertain times and tackles head on the thorny question of cultural development Examining the novels of James Fenimore Cooper Mark Twain and William Dean Howells he shows that through their fiction we can gain a better appreciation of the rich detail of everyday life making the debate relevant to contemporary discussions of liberal democracy Johnson focuses on an issue that liberals have inadequately addressed whether people tend to develop fully as individuals under liberal democracy when such a regime does little formally to encourage their development He argues that though the liberal fear of state guided culture is well founded it should not prevent us from evaluating liberalism s effect on individual flourishing By extending the debate over the worthiness of liberal democracy to include democracy s effect on individual development he contends that the democratic experience is much fuller than the aristocratic one and thus expands the faculties of its citizens Critics of American democracy such as John Rawls have sought to transform it into a social or egalitarian democracy in the European style Johnson shows that neither the debate between Rawls and his communitarian critics nor the ongoing discussion of the globalization of American values adequately addresses the fundamental critique of democratic culture advanced by the aesthetic critics Johnson s cogent analysis reaches out to those readers who are ready for a more comprehensive evaluation of liberal democracy offering new insight into the relationship between the state and the individual while blazing new trails in the intersection of politics and literature Goethe in English Derek Glass,Martin H. Jones,2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethes birth It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world The work records publications during the century not merely translations that originated during this period It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004 Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities Research Association both as a worthy commemoration of Goethes anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L. Pylodet, Charles Ammi Cutter, Bertine Emma Weston, Karl Brown, Helen E.
