Loss Understanding The Emptiness:

Loss Eileen Kuehn, 2001 Describes how the loss of loved ones affect teenagers and the various ways in which they react to loss and suggests techniques to cope with loss and help grieving friends The Two Truths in Chinese Buddhism □□ □, 2004-01-01 This book originates from a thesis work whereby it is one of the first comprehensive study of Chi Tsang's treatment of The Two Truths in English The work aims to build up a strong interest in readers particularly people in Western societies who are unfamiliar with Chinese tradition culture and language The topic is not only important in the theoretical approach but also critical to a practitioner to comprehend Chinese Buddhism for its ability to be a good reference work

Understanding Grief Alan Wolfelt, 2013-06-17 This classic resource helps guide the bereaved person through the loss of a loved one and provides an opportunity to learn to live with and work through the personal grief process Culture and

Depression Arthur Kleinman, Byron J. Good, 2023-04-28 Some of the most innovative and provocative work on the emotions and illness is occurring in cross cultural research on depression Culture and Depression presents the work of anthropologists psychiatrists and psychologists who examine the controversies agreements and conceptual and methodological problems that arise in the course of such research A book of enormous depth and breadth of discussion Culture and Depression enriches the cross cultural study of emotions and mental illness and leads it in new directions It commences with a historical study followed by a series of anthropological accounts that examine the problems that arise when depression is assessed in other cultures This is a work of impressive scholarship which demonstrates that anthropological approaches to affect and illness raise central questions for psychiatry and psychology and that cross cultural studies of depression raise equally provocative questions for anthropology This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 Some of the most innovative and provocative work on the emotions and illness is occurring in cross cultural research on depression Culture and Depression presents the work of anthropologists psychiatrists and psychologists who examine the controversies Lost Beyond Telling Richard Howard Stamelman, 1990 In seeking to give voice to absent things or lost experiences Richard Stamelman says modern poetry attempts to give absence a shape Loss in his view is both the cause and the subject of the modern poem Fittingly in Lost beyond Telling he formulates and develops what he calls a poetics of loss with which he frames his treatment of modern French poetry Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill
