Lost Empire On The Nile:

Lost Empire on the Nile Stanhope White, 2003 Lost Empire on the Nile Stanhope White, 1970 The Lost Empire Philip Caraman, 1985 The First Jihad Daniel Allen Butler, 2020-01-10 A well researched account of the nineteenth century Sudanese cleric who led a bloody holy war from a New York Times bestselling author Publishers Weekly Before bin Laden al Zargawi or Ayatollah Khomeini there was the Mahdi the Expected One who raised the Arabs in pan tribal revolt against infidels and apostates in Sudan Born on the Nile in 1844 Muhammed Ahmed grew into a devout charismatic young man whose visage was said to have always featured the placid hint of a smile He developed a ferocious resentment however against the corrupt Ottoman Turks their Egyptian lackeys and finally the Europeans who he felt held the Arab people in subjugation In 1880 he raised the banner of holy war and thousands of warriors flocked to his side The Egyptians dispatched a punitive expedition to the Sudan but the Mahdist forces destroyed it In 1883 Col William Hicks gathered a larger army of nearly ten thousand men Trapped by the tribesmen in a gorge at El Obeid it was massacred to a man Three months later another British led force met disaster at El Teb This was followed by the infamous conflict at Khartoum during which a treacherous native or patriot depending upon one s point of view let the Madhist forces into the city resulting in the horrifying death of Gen Charles Chinese Gordon at the hands of jihadists In today s world the Mahdi s words have been repeated almost verbatim by the jihadists who have attacked New York Washington Madrid and London and continue to wage war from the Hindu Kush to the Mediterranean Along with Saladin the Mahdi stands as an Islamic icon who launched his own successful crusade against the West This deeply researched work reminds us that the clash of civilizations that supposedly came upon us in September 2001 in fact began much earlier and lays important tracks into the study of terror fundamentalism and the early clash between Islam and Christianity Publishers Weekly Eating Uganda Cedric Pulford, 1999 Civil Wars and Revolution in the Sudan Robert O. Collins, 2005 This is a collection of twenty essays written over forty years between 1962 and 2004 on the Sudan southern Sudan and Darfur Four decades of civil war has cost more than two million dead and another six million refugees and Internally Displaced Persons Now after a decade of ambivalent and frustrating negotiations a peace agreement between the Sudan People s Liberation Movement and the Government of the Sudan has finally been signed on 9 January 2005 leaving in its wake a devastated southern Sudan its infrastructure completely destroyed its fragile economy in ruins and its people exhausted after nearly half a century of fierce fighting Although these twenty essays include such topics as nation building the dynamics of racial ethnic cultural and religious identity the politics of oil and the legacy of slavery most of them are concerned with conflict in the Sudan its participants and the reasons why and it began and has continued for so long These essays are presented here in chronological order the aggregate becomes a unique history of the Sudan s terrible civil war that cannot be found elsewhere the independent Sudan are woven into the text of each revealing new insights into the history of these tumultuous decades

The Indigenous and the Foreign in Christian Ethiopian Art Manuel João Ramos, Isabel Boavida, 2017-03-02 In the rural plateaux of northern Ethiopia one can still find scattered ruins of monumental buildings that are evidently alien to the country's ancient architectural tradition. This little known and rarely studied architectural heritage is a silent witness to a fascinating if equivocal cultural encounter that took place in the 16th-17th centuries between Catholic Europeans and Orthodox Ethiopians. The Indigenous and the Foreign in Christian Ethiopian Art presents a selection of papers derived from the 5th Conference on the History of Ethiopian Art which for the first time systematically approached this heritage. The book explores the enduring impact of this encounter on the artistic, religious and political life of Ethiopia, an impact that has not been readily acknowledged, not least because the public conversion of the early 17th-century Emperor Susnyus to Catholicism resulted in a bloody civil war shrouded in religious intolerance. Bringing together work by key researchers in the field, these studies open up a particularly rich period in the history of Ethiopia and cast new light on the complexities of cultural and religious misencounters between Africa and Europe.
