In Some Lost Place Sandy Allan, 2015-07-08 In the summer of 2012 a team of six climbers set out to attempt the first ascent of one of the great unclimbed lines of the Himalaya the giant Mazeno Ridge on Nanga Parbat the world's ninth highest mountain At ten kilometres in length the Mazeno is the longest route to the summit of an 8 000 metre peak Ten expeditions had tried and failed to climb this enormous ridge Eleven days later two of the team Sandy Allan and Rick Allen both in their late fifties reached the summit They had run out of food and water and began hallucinating wildly from the effects of altitude and exhaustion Heavy snow conditions meant they would need another three days to descend the far side of the killer mountain I began to wonder whether what we were doing was humanly possible We had climbed the Mazeno and reached the summit but we both knew we had wasted too much energy In among the conflicting emotions the exhaustion and the elation we knew our bodies could not sustain this amount of time at altitude indefinitely especially now we had no water The slow trickle of attrition had turned into a flood it was simply a matter of time before our bodies stopped functioning Which one of us would succumb first In Some Lost Place is Sandy Allan's epic account of an incredible feat of endurance and commitment at the very limits of survival and the first ascent of one of the last challenges in the Himalaya The Daily Washington Law Reporter, 1880 Vols for 1902 include decisions of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals and various other courts of the District of Columbia The Story of Original Loss Malcolm Owen Slavin, PhD, 2024-05-20 This book explores the universal human existential trauma of original loss a trauma the author describes as arising from our primal human evolutionary loss of experiencing ourselves as innately belonging to and instinctively at home within the larger natural world In this trauma arose our existential awareness of impermanence and mortality along with the need to mourn that loss in order to create a sense of belonging and identity The book describes how the invention of art and group ritual became the collective ways we mourn our shared existential loss It describes as well how it is the art within the psychoanalytic practice that enables both patient and analyst to grieve their individual versions of our shared original loss Drawing on the work of Winnicott Loewald and Ogden as well as art theory and religion this book offers a new perspective on the intersection of metaphorical artistic thinking and psychoanalysis This book will appeal to psychoanalysts psychotherapists and scholars of poetic visual and musical metaphor creativity evolution and history of art "Invisible Cities" and the Urban Imagination Benjamin Linder, 2022-11-08 In 1972 Italo Calvino published Invisible Cities a literary book that masterfully combines philosophy and poetry rigid structure and free play theoretical insight and glittering prose The text is an extended meditation on urban life and it continues to resonate not only among literary scholars but among social scientists architects and urban planners as well To commemorate the 50th anniversary of Invisible Cities this collection of essays serves as both an appreciation and a critical engagement Drawing from a wide array of disciplinary perspectives and geographical contexts this volume grapples with the theoretical pedagogical and political legacies of Calvino's work Each chapter approaches Invisible Cities not only as a novel but as a work of evocative ethnography place writing and urban theory Fifty years on what can Calvino's dreamlike text offer to scholars and practitioners interested in actually existing urban life
