Louis Althusser Transitions:

Louis Althusser Warren Montag, 2003 Table of contents Rethinking Marxist Approaches to Transition Onur Acaroglu, 2020-09-25 In Rethinking Marxist Theories of Transition Onur Acaroglu traces the concept of transition across the tracts of Classical and Western Marxism Rarely directly invoked transition between different societies appears as an imminent social reality and a useful conceptual tool for critical social theory Transitions as qualitative shifts between societies are often considered as eventual historical stages or effaced altogether Theorising transition in a new direction Onur Acaroglu elaborates a theory of temporal dislocation Considering transition through a framework of out of joint temporalities the notion comes through as an undervalued tendency in social reproduction Social Theory and Psychoanalysis in Transition Anthony Elliott, 2019-04-12 Originally published in 1999 Social Theory and Psychoanalysis in Transition is a benchmark critique of Freudian theory in which a dialogue between the Frankfurt School the Lacanian tradition and post Lacanian developments in critical and feminist theory is developed Considering afresh the relations between self and society Elliot argues for the importance of imagination and the unconscious in understanding issues about the self and self identity ideology and power sexual difference and gender Transitions From Dictatorship To Democracy Ronald H. Chilcote, Stylianos Hadjiyannis, Fred A. III Lopez, Daniel Nataf, Elizabeth Sammis, 2015-12-22 First published in 1991 In the late 1970s Nicos Poulantzas in Crisis of the Dictatorships Portugal Spain Greece applied his well known theoretical perspectives to a concrete analysis of the major transformations that occurred in those three countries during 1974 and 1975 His provocative and interpretative analysis not only provided a basis for comparative study but also examined several important theoretical questions about transition from dictatorship to representative democracy and on to socialism The present essays offer a retrospective assessment of this transition and examine current developments with particular attention to the role of the state and social classes in the overthrow of the old dictatorships the evolution of representative democracy and political parties and the formal integration of these countries into the European Economic Community and the international capitalist system Identities in Transition Kristin Joachimsen, 2011-03-05 In addition to challenging historical critical readings in the tradition after Derrida this book presents three ways of reading the text based on variations of linguistic theory one linguistic one narratological and one intertextual In these readings the trope personification is central

Athlete Transitions into Retirement Deborah Agnew, 2021-08-12 Transitions in sport can be either normative relatively predictable or non normative less predictable and are critical times in the development of athlete s careers Whilst retirement from sport is inevitable the timing of retirement can be less predictable If an athlete copes well with the transition they may be better able to adjust to life after sport However not coping with the transition can lead to a crisis and negative consequences for the athlete Transition periods from sport and in particular retirement from sport have been identified as high risk periods for athletes in terms of psychological distress However circumstances surrounding the athlete s retirement are a critical factor in the transition into life after sport Voluntarily retiring from sport for example leads to a smoother transition than being forced into retirement through injury or deselection Research indicates that retirement from sport should be seen as a process rather than a single moment with many athletes taking up to 2 years to successfully transition out of sport Currently there are few bodies of work that are solely devoted to retirement transition Athlete Transitions into Retirement Experiences in Elite Sport and Options for Effective Support provides contemporary viewpoints on athlete transitions from elite sport in a global context This volume is a collaboration of research from leading authors around the world offering global perspectives to athlete transitions into retirement and is key reading for both researchers and practitioners in the fields of Sport Psychology and Coaching as well as the Athletes themselves

American Linguistics in Transition Frederick J. Newmeyer, 2022-06-16 This volume is devoted to a major chapter in the history of linguistics in the United States the period from the 1930s to the 1980s and focuses primarily on the transition from post Bloomfieldian structural linguistics to early generative grammar The first three chapters in the book discuss the rise of structuralism in the 1930s the interplay between American and European structuralism and the publication of Joos's Readings in Linguistics in 1957 Later chapters explore the beginnings of generative grammar and the reaction to it from structural linguists how generativists made their ideas more widely known the response to generativism in Europe and the resistance to the new theory by leading structuralists which continued into the 1980s The final chapter demonstrates that contrary to what has often been claimed generative grammarians were not in fact organizationally dominant in the field in the United States in the 1970s and 1980s

Aesthetics & Alienation Gary Tedman, 2012-06-29 A complete and original theory of aesthetics based on Marx and Althusser in the modernist Marxist anti humanist tradition Brecht Althusser Benjamin Adorno The main concepts that arise from this work are the aesthetic level of practice aesthetic state apparatuses aesthetic interpellation and pseudo dialectics all of which are used to understand the role of aesthetic experience and its place in everyday life In the space long thought as necessary to fill spanning the gap between Marx and Freud the author proposes that aesthetics can be located and defined in a concrete way We are therefore looking at a domain involving and implicating feelings affections dispositions sensibilities and sensuality as well as their social role in art tradition ritual and taboo With the classic Marxist concepts of base and superstructure divided into levels economic ideological and political the aesthetic level of practice is the area that has traditionally been mostly either missing or mislocated and especially perhaps misrepresented for political reasons The importance of this level is that it fuels and supports the media or as Althusser described it the traffic or mediation between base and superstructure although for Althusser this was ideological traffic Here this is also defined as aesthetic From this vantage point we begin to be able to see aesthetic state apparatuses analyse how they function both in the past historically for example firstly in art history and today in the contemporary political context to grasp the role that art and feelings along with affective alienation plays in our culture as a complete and in fact cyclical reciprocating system

Underdevelopment and the Transition to Socialism James H. Mittelman, 2013-09-24 Underdevelopment and the Transition to Socialism Mozambique and Tanzania evaluates the promise and problems of socialism in the Third World by considering the political economies of Mozambique and Tanzania The aim is to provide a basic account for Marxists and non Marxists alike interested in alternative strategies of development in the Third World It offers a materialist political economy approach that should be useful to an interdisciplinary group of scholars and practitioners The book is organized into four parts Part I maps out purposes and procedures Part II on Mozambique is a factually grounded analysis of an initial conjuncture in the transition to socialism the capture of state power by workers and peasants Part III on Tanzania focuses on another vital step on the way to socialism the nationalization of leading financial institutions and the attempt to place them under the aegis of the immediate producers Part IV knits together the main strands of the foregoing analysis and ties them to the broad themes discussed at the beginning of this book

The Politics of the Encounter Andy Merrifield, 2013-04-15 The Politics of the Encounter is a spirited interrogation of the city as a site of both theoretical inquiry and global social struggle The city writes Andy Merrifield remains important virtually and materially for progressive politics And yet he notes more than forty years have passed since Henri Lefebvre advanced the powerful ideas that still undergird much of our thinking about urbanization and urban society Merrifield rethinks the city in light of the vast changes to our planet since 1970 when Lefebvre's seminal Urban Revolution was first published At the same time he expands on Lefebvre's notion of the right to the city which was first conceived in the wake of the 1968 student uprising in Paris We need to think less of cities as entities with borders and clear demarcations between what's inside and what's outside and emphasize instead the effects of planetary urbanization a concept of Lefebvre's that Merrifield makes relevant for the ways we now experience the urban The city from Tahrir Square to Occupy Wall Street seems to be the critical zone in which a new social protest is unfolding yet dissenters' aspirations are transcending the scale of the city physically and philosophically Consequently we must shift our perspective from the right to the city to the politics of the encounter says Merrifield We must ask how revolutionary crowds form where they draw their energies from what kind of spaces they occur in and what kind of new spaces they produce

Motherhood, Absence and Transition Trish Green, 2016-04-15 The vast majority of academic texts on motherhood have focused on women's experiences of the early years of mothering while texts covering the topic of home leaving have tended to privilege the young person's experience Combining lively empirical material with an illuminating social theoretical framework Trish Green's book addresses the much neglected area of the mother's experience of separation from her child at the time of their home leaving The book makes clear how the mother's experience of separation is silenced first by the socio cultural constructions of motherhood per se second by the privileging of the child's transition to adulthood and third by a neglect of the relational dimension of this particular life course transition In doing so the book makes an important contribution to debates on ageing identity and the life course and will be of great interest to sociologists with various academic interests Writing Tangier in the Postcolonial Transition Michael K. Walonen, 2016-02-17 In his study of the Tangier expatriate community Michael K Walonen analyzes the representations of French and Spanish Colonial North Africa by Paul Bowles Jane Bowles William Burroughs Brion Gysin and Alfred Chester during the end of the colonial era and the earliest days of post independence The conceptualizations of space in these authors descriptions of Tangier Walonen shows share common components an attention to the transformative potential of the conflict sweeping the region a record of the power relations that divided space along lines of gender and ethnicity including the spatial impact of the widespread sexual commerce between Westerners and natives a vision of the Maghreb as a land that can be dominated or imposed on as a kind of frontier space an expression of anxieties about the specters of Cold War antagonisms and an embrace of the underlying logic of the market to the culture of the Maghreb Counterbalancing the depictions of Tangier by Westerners who sought to reconcile their nostalgia for the colonial order with their support of native demands for independent governance is Walonen s extended analysis of the contrasting sense of place found in the writings of native Moroccan authors such as Mohammed Choukri Tahar Ben Jelloun and Anouar Majid In its focus on Tangier and the larger Maghreb as a lived environment situated at a particular spatial and temporal crossroads Walonen s study makes an important contribution to the fields of urban transatlantic and postcolonial studies
