Twenty-Five+ Buildings Every Architect Should Understand Simon Unwin, 2023-11-03 The underlying theme of Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is the relationship of architecture to the human being how it frames our lives and orchestrates our experience how it can help us make sense of the world and contribute to our sense of identity and place Exploring these dimensions through a wide range of case studies that illustrate the rich diversity of twentieth and twenty first century architecture this book is essential reading for every architect With the addition of numerous shorter analyses this new edition covers an even greater range of architectural ideas providing students and architects with further inspiration for exploration in their own design work Architects live by ideas But where do they come from And how do they shape buildings There is no one right way to do architecture This book illustrates many Its aim is to explore the rich diversity of architectural creativity by analysing a wide range of examples to extract the ideas behind them Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is a companion to Simon Unwin's Analysing Architecture the Universal Language of Place Making most recent edition 2021 and part of the trilogy which also includes his Exercises in Architecture Learning to Think as an Architect second edition 2022 Together the three books offer an introduction to the workings of architecture providing for the three aspects of learning theory examples and practice Twenty Five Buildings focusses on analysing examples using the methodology offered by Analysing Architecture which operates primarily through the medium of drawing An underlying theme of Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is the relationship of architecture to the human being how it frames our lives and orchestrates our experiences how it can help us give form to the world and contributes to our senses of identity and place Exploring these dimensions through case studies that illustrate the rich diversity of twentieth and twenty first century architecture this book is essential reading and hopefully an inspiration for every architect In this new edition supplementary analysis and discussion has been added to each of the twenty five case studies drawing attention to their influences from and on other architects A number of extra shorter analyses have been included too following the practice of presenting extra small dishes interspersed among main courses in high end restaurants These additional short analyses account for the sign after Twenty Five in the title of this edition and double the number of buildings analysed to around fifty

The Space Within Robert McCarter, 2016-11-15 Alvar Aalto once argued that what mattered in architecture wasn't what a building looks like on the day it opens but what it is like to live inside it thirty years later In this book architect and critic Robert McCarter persuasively argues that interior spatial experience is the necessary starting point for design and the quality of that experience is the only appropriate means of evaluating a work after it has been built McCarter reveals that we can't really know a piece of architecture without inhabiting its spaces and we need to counter our contemporary obsession with exterior views and forms with a renewed appreciation for interiors He explores how interior space has been integral to the development of modern architecture from the late 1800s to today and he examines how architects have engaged interior space and its experiences in their design processes fundamentally transforming traditional approaches to composition Eloquently placing us within a host of interior spaces he opens up new ways of thinking about architecture and what its goals are and should be making of shadows is an act as old as architecture itself From the gloom of the medieval hearth through to the masterworks of modernism shadows have been an essential yet neglected presence in architectural history Shadow Makers tells for the first time the history of shadows in architecture It weaves together a rich narrative combining close readings of significant buildings both ancient and modern with architectural theory and art history to reveal the key places and moments where shadows shaped architecture in distinctive and dynamic ways It shows how shadows are used as an architectural instrument of form composition and visual effect while also exploring the deeper cultural context tracing differing conceptions of their meaning and symbolism whether as places of refuge devotion terror occult practice sublime experience or as metaphors of the unconscious Within a chronological framework encompassing medieval baroque enlightenment sublime picturesque and modernist movements a wide range of topics are explored from Hawksmoor's London churches Japanese temple complexes and the shade patterns of Islamic cities to Ruskin in Venice and Aldo Rossi and Louis Kahn in the 20th century This beautifully illustrated study seeks to understand the work of these shadow makers through their drawings their writings and through the masterpieces they built
