Love's Knowledge Martha C. Nussbaum,1990 This volume brings together Nussbaum s published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements Memory and Migration Andreas Kitzmann,2011-01-01 Julia Creet is an associate professor in the Department of English at York University Love Poems Peter Washington,1993-11-02 A gorgeously jacketed hardcover anthology of passionate love poems from around the world and through the ages It has often been said that love both sacred and profane is the only true subject of the lyric poem Nothing better justifies this claim than the splendid poems in this volume which range from the writings of ancient China to those of modern day America and represent at its most piercing a universal experience of the human soul This collection includes poems by John Donne Christina Rossetti W H Auden Edna St Vincent Millay Robert Graves e e cummings Dorothy Parker William Shakespeare Sappho Bhartrhari Anna Akhmatova and W B Yeats among many others Everyman s Library

The Trinity John M. Farrelly, 2005-01-04 The mystery of the Trinity is the central Christian belief that defines God's essence God's ongoing love for humanity and saving grace Yet over the past few centuries especially in the West Christians have either ceased believing in the Trinity or simply no longer recognize its relevance in their ecclesial or individual lives Written in an ecumenical spirit that engages contemporary questions and theological viewpoints The Trinity Rediscovering the Central Christian Mystery articulates the mystery of the Trinity for people formed by modern historical consciousness science awareness of the equal dignity of men and women and respect for world religions By first identifying contemporary problems with the Christian proclamation of the Trinity in our culture and major differences among modern theologians John Farrelly OSB explores Scripture the life and message of Jesus Christ the various stages of the development of Trinitarian doctrine in Christian History the relation of the Trinity to creation and salvation the generation of the Son from the Father within the Trinity and the procession of the Holy Spirit from Father and Son and the meaning of three persons in one God He concludes by reflecting on the implications this renewed theology of the Trinity has for ecclesiology and Christian spirituality in our twenty first century world especially in relation to other world religions

Song to Book Sylvia Huot, 2019-05-15 As the visual representation of an essentially oral text Sylvia Huot points out the medieval illuminated manuscript has a theatrical performative quality She perceives the tension between implied oral performance and real visual artifact as a fundamental aspect of thirteenth and fourteenth century poetics In this generously illustrated volume Huot examines manuscript texts both from the performance oriented lyric tradition of chanson courtoise or courtly love lyric and from the self consciously literary tradition of Old French narrative poetry She demonstrates that the evolution of the lyrical romance and dit narrative poems which incorporate thematic and rhetorical elements of the lyric was responsible for a progressive redefinition of lyric poetry as a written medium and the emergence of an explicitly written literary tradition uniting lyric and narrative poetics Huot first investigates the nature of the vernacular book in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries analyzing organization page layout rubrication and illumination in a series of manuscripts She then describes the relationship between poetics and manuscript format in specific texts including works by widely read medieval authors such as Guillaume de Lorris Jean de Meun and Guillaume de Machaut as well as by lesser known writers including Nicole de Margival and Watriquet de Couvin Huot focuses on the writers characteristic modifications of lyric poetics their use of writing and performance as theme their treatment of the poet as singer or writer and of the lady as implied reader or listener and the ways in which these features of the text were elaborated by scribes and illuminators Her readings reveal how medieval poets and book makers conceived their common project and how they distinguished their respective roles
