

My darling, my dear
The love my my life
I only want you to know

That when I am struggling
Or dealing with strife
To you is where I always go

When trouble is looming
When problems draw near Just know that you'll always be

Studies of Literature from Marginalized Nations in Modern China, with a Focus on Eastern European Literature Binghui Song,2024-04-14 This book presents the first systematic study of the 100 year history of translation research reception and influence of Central and Eastern European literature in China from the late Qing Dynasty to the end of the twentieth century This study of Eastern European literature from the perspective of Sino foreign literary relations is based on extensive research into the translation and reception of Central and Eastern European writers such as Milan Kundera S ndor Pet fi Henryk Sienkiewicz Julius Fucik and Bertolt Brecht Since the late nineteenth century the major Chinese writers have paid special attention to the literature of the marginalized Eastern European nations when they have to translate from translations since few of them understand Eastern European languages The book seeks to identify what attracted the founders of new Chinese literature to Eastern European literature and to define its unique significance for the construction of modern Chinese literature

Rethinking Islamic Studies Carl W. Ernst,Richard C. Martin,2012-11-27 A groundbreaking response to the challenges of interpreting Islamic religion in the post 9 11 and post Orientalist era Rethinking Islamic Studies upends scholarly roadblocks in post Orientalist discourse within contemporary Islamic studies and carves fresh inroads toward a robust new understanding of the discipline one that includes religious studies and other politically infused fields of inquiry Editors Carl W Ernst and Richard C Martin along with a distinguished group of scholars map the trajectory of the study of Islam and offer innovative approaches to the theoretical and methodological frameworks that have traditionally dominated the field In the volume s first section the contributors reexamine the underlying notions of modernity in the East and West and allow for the possibility of multiple and incongruent modernities This opens a discussion of fundamentalism as a manifestation of the tensions of modernity in Muslim cultures The second section addresses the volatile character of Islamic religious identity as expressed in religious and political movements at national and local levels In the third section contributors focus on Muslim communities in Asia and examine the formation of religious models and concepts as they appear in this region This study concludes with an afterword by accomplished Islamic studies scholar Bruce B Lawrence reflecting on the evolution of this post Orientalist approach to Islam and placing the volume within existing and emerging scholarship Rethinking Islamic Studies offers original perspectives for the discipline each utilizing the tools of modern academic inquiry to help illuminate contemporary incarnations of Islam for a growing audience of those invested in a sharper understanding of the Muslim world
