Waiting for the End Earl G. Ingersoll, 2007 Waiting for the End examines two dozen contemporary novels within the context of a half century of theorizing about the function of ending in narrative That theorizing about ending generated a powerful dynamic a quarter century ago with the advent of feminist criticism of masculinist readings of the role played by ending in fiction Feminists such as Theresa de Lauretis in 1984 and more famously Susan Winnett in her 1991 PMLA essay Coming Unstrung were leading voices in a swelling chorus of theorist pointing out the masculinist bias of ending in narrative With the entry of feminist readings of ending it became inevitable that criticism of fiction would become gendered through the recognition of difference transcending a simple binary of female male to establish a spectrum of masculine to feminine endings regardless of the sex of the writer Accordingly Waiting for the End examines pairs of novels one pair by Margaret Atwood and one by Ian McEwan to demonstrate how a writer can offer endings at either end of the gender spectrum

Something for Everyone, with Love "Janie" Dowdel Jeanette "Janie" Dowdell, Jeanette Dowdell, 2010-06 Who is the author Just one of the trillion plus members of humanity who has placed her footprint on the Earth to stand toe to toe with centuries of Earth s past and present successful famous and infamous inhabitants Hmm who judged their competence We are who we are and no one knows us better than we ourselves But do we actually know who we are Why we are Who we think we are She wonders Why does she love to write in a form not universally accepted Poetry She doesn t know

She doesn't write as the poets of old. She writes for today her day and age hoping her efforts will be received in the spirit in which they are delivered. Be assured her words have been painstakingly chosen. They set a tone of pathos and humor to cajole, inspire, teach, challenge. Some poems are controversial, offered not to provoke but to stimulate thought, awaken souls, tweak minds, set aflame every reader's imagination, stir emotions, share life experiences, offer fresh points of view. Come journey with her, see if she lives up to her own personal writing motto: Plant seeds and keep the blossoms in bloom. Challenge. Entertain. Educate.

Because You Love Me Rita Thomas, 2022-11-14. Because You Love Me, a women's devotional book, is a journey of faith, love, and direction for women seeking to develop an intimate relationship with God. Women share a unique place in God's heart because we are redeemed and chosen with a real purpose in His plan. Discovering that purpose is sometimes difficult because of who we believe we are in God's order, but we must allow God to deliver us from our preconceived notions to find our real purpose. When we develop a relationship with God, we learn that we are complete with Him, daughters of the Highest, with spiritual gifts at our command. In these pages, you will find daily scripture commentary and prayers that give comfort, inspiration, and spiritual blessing to grow you into the woman that God intended you to be. There are fifty-two weeks of devotions included in this book, one devotional for every day to lead and guide you through your spiritual journey with God.

Running into the Arms of Love Amber Shields, 2015-06-30. This is a true story of a woman who grew up trying to buy love and to be accepted. She ran from her troubles. She ran from men. She ran from the Lord. The more she ran, the more trouble she got into until she fell into a pit which was her death bed. However, the Lord delivered her. She is no longer running because she ran into the right hands, the Lord's. This story will touch your heart. This story will show you what God can do. He can turn a tragedy into a triumph. He can turn your life completely around like the fairy tales of Cinderella and Beauty and the Beast. Only this is the real life of a woman who once was blind but now she sees.

Waiting On Love Krista Ann Taylor, 2023-06-01. Approaching thirty, Elizabeth is trying her best to follow God's plan for her life. She has always dreamed of being with someone who shares her calling. Now she is beginning to wonder how long she is going to have to wait before love finds her. David is waiting for his life to begin. He's been living one day at a time, not sure what he's meant to do with his life. Is love what he's been searching for? Will God bring these two together at just the right time?
