Loiselle,2008-11-01 The release of Denys Arcand's Le Dclin de l'empire am ricain The Decline of the American Empire in 1986 marked a major turning point in Quebec cinema. It was the first Qu b cois film that enjoyed huge critical and commercial success at home and abroad. Arcand's tragicomedy about eight intellectuals gathered around a dinner table relating sexy anecdotes became the top grossing film of all time in Quebec and was the first Canadian feature to be nominated for an Oscar in the foreign language category. Seventeen years later Arcand won an Academy Award for the sequel Les Invasions barbares The Barbarian Invasions where the amusing insouciance of the thirty somethings talking dirty in Le Dclin is replaced by a sense of moral responsibility and serene resignation. In this engrossing study Andr Loiselle presents the first in depth analysis of both films within the context of Quebec culture. Through close readings and concise cultural analysis of two of the most important films in the history of Quebec cinema Loiselle demonstrates the ways in which Arcand's work represents a snapshot of the evolution of the French Canadian film industry since 1980. The companion films trace the decline of Quebec's national dream and the Qu b cois attempts to cling to their identity against the forces of barbaric globalization. The second title in the new Canadian Cinema series Denys Arcand's Le Dclin de l'empire am ricain and Les Invasions barbares is essential reading for cinephiles, film critics and anyone with an interest in cultural studies and Canadian and Quebec history.

For the Gay Stage Drewey Wayne Gunn,2017-06-02 Previous surveys of the gay theatrical repertoire have concentrated on plays produced on Broadway or in London's West End. This comprehensive guide goes well beyond these earlier studies by introducing productions from Off Broadway, from regional theaters in the U.S. and U.K. and from Ireland, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa. Also included are Puerto Rican, Indian and Filipino plays written in English as well as translations from other languages. Well over half of the works discussed here appear for the first time in such a study.

Lesbian Film Guide Alison Darren,2000-02-17 This A-Z guide to lesbians and lesbianism in the movies contains reviews, gossip, facts and commentary on over 200 films, including specifically lesbian films such as Go Fish and Desert Hearts, as well as films with a lesbian character or theme like The Children's Hour and The Hunger.

Canada's Best Features Eugene P. Walz,2002 Long recognized for outstanding National Film Board documentaries and innovative animated movies, Canada has recently emerged from the considerable shadow of the Hollywood elephant with a series of feature films that have captured the attention of audiences around the world. This is the first anthology to focus on Canada's feature films, those acknowledged as its very best. With essays by senior academics and leading scholars from across the country as well as some fresh new voices, Canada's Best Features offers penetrating analyses of fifteen award-winning films. Internationally acclaimed directors David Cronenberg, Atom Egoyan, Denys Arcand and Claude Jutra are represented here. Noteworthy films include Mon oncle Antoine, often cited as Canada's number one film of all time, such Cannes Festival favourites as Le dclin de l'empire am ricain and Exotica, and cult films Careful by Guy Maddin and Masala by Srinivas Krishna. The essays offer the latest word on these films and filmmakers, done from a variety of perspectives. Some of the films have never been examined in depth before Complete filmographies and bibliographies accompany each essay A contextualizing introduction by Professor Gene Walz provides the necessary overview An annotated bibliography of books on the Canadian film industry completes this impressive package

Stage-Bound André Loiselle, 2003 Annotation Although feature film adaptations of Canadian plays have become increasingly common in the past decade the practice of turning drama into film began in Canada in 1942 when Hilda Hooke Smith's Here Will I Nest was brought to the screen Over the years some adaptations have enjoyed a fair measure of success while others have fallen into oblivion but virtually all of them have engaged with their theatrical origins often leading to criticism that they remain too rigidly anchored to the stage Stage Bound the first extensive study of Canadian and Quebecois drama challenges this reductive interpretation Andre Loiselle demonstrates that theatricality is central to the meaning of these films and in the process reclaims them

Horton, 2000-02-23 We need good screenwriters who understand character Everywhere Andrew Horton traveled in researching this book from Hollywood to Hungary he heard the same refrain Yet most of the standard how to books on screenwriting follow the film industry's earlier lead in focusing almost exclusively on plot and formulaic structures With this book Horton a film scholar and successful screenwriter provides the definitive work on the character based screenplay Exceptionally wide ranging covering American international mainstream and off Hollywood films as well as television the book offers creative strategies and essential practical information Horton begins by placing screenwriting in the context of the storytelling tradition arguing through literary and cultural analysis that all great stories revolve around a strong central character He then suggests specific techniques and concepts to help any writer whether new or experienced build more vivid characters and screenplays Centering his discussion around four film examples including Thelma Louise and The Silence of the Lambs and the television series Northern Exposure he takes the reader step by step through the screenwriting process starting with the development of multi dimensional characters and continuing through to rewrite Finally he includes a wealth of information about contests fellowships and film festivals Espousing a new character based approach to screenwriting this engaging insightful work will prove an essential guide to all of those involved in the writing and development of film scripts

Quebec National Cinema Bill Marshall, 2001 In Quebec National Cinema Bill Marshall tackles the question of the role cinema plays in Quebec's view of itself as a nation Surveying mostly fictional feature films Marshall demonstrates how Quebec cinema has evolved from the innovative direct cinema of the early 1960s into the diverse canvas of popular comedies glossy co productions and reworked auteur cinema of the postmodern 1990s He explores the faultlines of Quebec identity its problematic and contradictory relationship with France the question of Native peoples the influence of the cosmopolitan and pluralist city of Montreal and the encounters between sexuality gender and nation traced and critiqued in women's and queer cinemas In the first comprehensive theoretically informed work in English on Quebec cinema Marshall views his subject as neither the assertion of some unproblematic national wholeness nor a random collection of disparate voices that drown out or invalidate the question of nation Instead he shows that while the allegory of nation marks Quebec film production it also leads to a tension between textual and contextual forces between homogeneity and heterogeneity and between major and minor modes of being and identity Drawing on a broad framework of theory and particularly indebted to the work of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Quebec National Cinema makes a valuable contribution to debates in film studies on national cinemas and to the burgeoning interest in French studies in the culture and politics of la francophonie Bill Marshall is professor of Modern French Studies at the University of Glasgow He has written several books and numerous articles on film and Francophone culture
