The word "LOVE" is written in a highly stylized, fiery font. Each letter is composed of bright orange and yellow flames that swirl and flicker, giving the text a sense of intense heat and passion. The background is a solid black, which makes the glowing fire stand out prominently. The overall effect is romantic and dramatic.

The Ocean of the Soul is one of the great works of the German Orientalist Hellmut Ritter 1892-1971. It presents a comprehensive analysis of the writings of the mystical Persian poet Farid al-Din Attar who is thought to have died at an advanced age in April 1221 when the Mongols destroyed his home city of Nishapur in the north east of Iran. The book which resulted from decades of investigation of literary and historical sources was first published in 1955 and has since remained unsurpassed not only as the definitive study of Attar's world of ideas but as an indispensable guide to understanding pre-modern Islamic literature in general. Quoting at length from Attar and other Islamic sources Ritter sketches an extraordinarily vivid portrait of the Islamic attitude toward life characteristic developments in pious and ascetic circles and in conclusion various dominant mystical currents of thought and feeling. Special attention is given to a wide range of views on love love in all its manifestations including homosexuality and the commonplace self-adoration of good looking youths. Ritter's approach is throughout based on precise philological interpretation of primary sources several of which he has himself made available in critical editions.
