Love Death And The Changing Seasons:

Forms of Expansion Lynn Keller, 1997-08-04 Expanding the boundaries of both genre and gender contemporary American women are writing long poems in a variety of styles that repossess history reconceive female subjectivity and revitalize poetry itself In the first book devoted to long poems by women Lynn Keller explores this rich and evolving body of work offering revealing discussions of the diverse traditions and feminist concerns addressed by poets ranging from Rita Dove and Sharon Doubiago to Judy Grahn Marilyn Hacker and Susan Howe Arguing that women poets no longer feel intimidated by the traditional associations of long poems with the heroic public realm or with great artistic ambition Keller shows how the long poem's openness to sociological anthropological and historical material makes it an ideal mode for exploring women's roles in history and culture In addition the varied forms of long poems from sprawling free verse epics to regular sonnet sequences to highly disjunctive experimental collages make this hybrid genre easily adaptable to diverse visions of feminism and of contemporary poetics

Love, Death, and the Changing of the Seasons Marilyn Hacker, 1995-03-17 This critically acclaimed sonnet sequence is the passionately intense story of a love affair between two women from the electricity of their first acquaintance to the experience of their parting

Lesbian Utopics Annamarie Jagose, 2017-09-29 In Lesbian Utopics Annamarie Jagose surveys the construction of the lesbian and finds her in a cultural space that is both everywhere and of all places nowhere The lesbian in other words is symbolically central yet culturally marginal

Love, Death, and Transience: Byron Renz, 2015-09-29 A collage in art is something like a mosaic It takes picture fragments which have a certain meaning in themselves and juxtaposes them with other picture fragments that convey a somewhat different but related idea When viewed as a collective whole the sub themes in each picture blend together to create a large unified master theme This book might be described as a literary collage The theme in each essay conveys a part of the life of our society and political landscape The essays were written to accompany e mail greetings for my four daughters and several of my friends at the four seasonal turning points of the year experienced similarly at the middle latitudes the two equinoxes and two solstices Now some nine years after starting the practice in 2006 a number of essays have accumulated some short and personal and others longer and impersonal The essays usually make some point about the world that we live in from the way that words convey meaning to phenomena of the mind to political issues of the day The purpose of this book is to stimulate thought and to encourage discussion

Hart Crane Brian M. Reed, 2006-04-02 This volume studies the relation between globalization and inequalities in emerging societies by linking Area and Global Studies aiming at a new theory of inequality beyond the nation state and beyond Eurocentrism
