Writings in the Social Philosophy and Ethics / Sozialphilosophische und ethische Schriften Paul Tillich, 2020-03-23 No detailed description available for Writings in the Social Philosophy and Ethics Sozialphilosophische und ethische Schriften

Routledge Revivals: Paul Tillich (1973) Alistair M. Macleod, 2017-09-29 First published in 1973 this is the first book on Paul Tillich in which a sustained attempt is made to sort out and evaluate the questions to which Tillich addresses himself in the crucial philosophical parts of his theological system It is argued that despite the apparent simplicity in his interest in the question of being Tillich in fact conceives of the ontological enterprise in a number of radically different ways in different contexts Much of Professor Macleod's work is devoted to the careful separation of these strands in his philosophical thought and to an exploration and assessment of the assumptions associated with them This book will be of interest to readers of Tillich and philosophers who specialise in ontology and linguistics

Lest We Lose Love Scherto Gill, 2023-04-18 Few are aware that since antiquity there has always been the philosophy of love at the core of Western culture It articulates what makes life meaningful and worthwhile and how we can live a good life together through an ethic of love This book fills this significant gap not only reconnecting the reader with such important wisdom and more crucially also reorienting our socio economic institutions and collective actions towards more loving and caring and more concerned with the qualities of our lived experiences By re-discovering the gifts of love we may challenge the existing systemic dehumanisation and draw from knowledge and understanding already present in our culture This is timely because the global crises we are facing are catastrophic especially when it comes to climate change Therefore we must respond from a place of love rather than fear Whether it is reducing the use of fossil fuels lowering greenhouse emission choosing the right food to eat or advocating for structural transformation our concerted endeavours start with an appropriate appreciation of the nature of our well being which includes the planet's well ness This book highlights a clear pathway forward to ensure collective healing and co flourishing with nature we must practise the art of loving

The Heart of an Addict Michael Jordan, 2007-07-01 Offers as never before a view straight into the heart of an addict Written by an ex Methamphetamine Manufacturer during his incarnation in state prison The three primary objectives of this book is to aid addicts in recovery detour youngsters from ever becoming addicts and to enlighten family members of addicts as to why their loved ones think feel and act as they do The beautifully written poems depict a tragic story of one man who sold out all his dreams to the high and found himself lost in the revolving door syndrome of prison where he finally gave it all over to God A must read for anyone whose life has been affected by addiction

Gower's imaginative French poetry is now available in a new edition with facing page translation annotations and introduction Gower's Traite employs the French poetic form of balade typically used for courtly verses to avow instead the virtues of loving marriage characteristic of Gower's signature moralizing His Cinkante Balades confront the tradition of the French Livre de Cent Balades by describing the feelings of a young man towards his lady but eventually offering a praise of love insofar as it is subject to reason and morality Together the two works offer an excellent introduction to the Anglo Norman works of Gower and are perfect for classroom use Lost the Plot David S. Stone,2020-03-04 Guido Cavalcanti Dante's intellectual mentor is widely considered among the greatest Italian lyric poets his famous and notoriously difficult philosophical canzone Donna me prega is often characterized as the most studied lyric poem in Italian literature This book situates Cavalcanti's poetry in the context of the Arabic Aristotelian rationalism that entered the Latin West in the 12th century a tradition marked by questions concerning whether humans can ever transcend their animality Cavalcanti's poetry is a focal point where one can view circa 1300 AD Arabo-Islamic philosophy in the process of being assimilated and naturalized in Western Europe eventually leading to values associated with the Renaissance and the Enlightenment that we now call modern and secular in particular to a notion of human reason as bound up with imagination and with ethical praxis rather than as a means for the attainment of knowledge concerning God and the cosmos The book features a radically unprecedented interpretation of Donna me prega starkly opposed to all previous accounts far from treating love as a threat to reason that would best be eliminated the canzone praises loving as the essential operation of rational human flourishing This study of Cavalcanti serves as a prelude to the formulation of a new paradigm for understanding Dante's Comedy The Blackwell Dictionary of Western Philosophy Nicholas Bunnin,Jiyuan Yu,2008-04-15 The Blackwell Dictionary of Western Philosophy The Blackwell Dictionary of Western Philosophy The style is fresh and engaging and it gives a broad and accurate picture of the western philosophical tradition It is a pleasure to browse in even if one is not looking for an answer to a particular question David Pears Its entries manage to avoid the obscurities of an exaggerated brevity without stretching themselves out as if seeking to embody whole miniature essays In short it presents itself as a model of clarity and clarification Alan Montefiore Love Beyond Measure: An Exploration of Love's Ethical Dimensions Pasquale De Marco,2025-05-15 In this thought provoking and insightful book we embark on a journey to explore the multifaceted nature of love delving into its profound impact on our lives and the world around us Drawing inspiration from diverse perspectives we unravel the complexities of love and uncover its transformative power Through philosophical psychological sociological and spiritual lenses we examine the essence of love its various types and expressions and its role in shaping our relationships communities and societies Personal narratives historical anecdotes and cultural traditions illuminate the diverse ways in which love manifests itself in our everyday lives Love is a force that transcends time and boundaries inspiring countless works of art literature and music It has the power to heal wounds bridge divides and inspire acts of kindness and compassion By understanding the nature of love and cultivating it in our lives we can create a more loving and harmonious world This book provides a comprehensive exploration of love's profound implications for our personal lives our relationships and our communities We delve into the art of loving ourselves and others the challenges of heartbreak and loss and the resilience and grace we can find in the face of

Mormonism in Dialogue with Contemporary Christian Theologies David Lamont Paulsen,Donald W. Musser,2007 This volume brings together for the first time a broad range of scholars from Mormon and other Christian traditions Replacing polemics and apologetics with dialogue these exchanges show how the full spectrum of contemporary theologies can be informed by uniquely Mormon ideas and correlatively how Mormon thought can be illuminated through the study of key ideas of the foremost theologians of the twentieth and twenty first centuries
