the silent era to the present Often considered an offshoot of the gangster film the prison film precedes the gangster film and is in many ways its opposite Rather than focusing on tragic figures heading for a fall the prison film focuses on fallen characters seeking redemption The gangster s perverse pursuit of the American dream is irrelevant to the prisoner for whom that dream has already failed At their core prison films are about self preservation at the hands of oppressive authority Like history itself prison films display long stretches of idleness punctuated by eruptions of violence dangerous moments that signify liberation and the potential for change The enclosed world of the prison is a highly effective microcosm one that forces characters and audiences alike to confront vexing issues of race class gender and sexuality These portrayals of men and women behind bars have thrived because they deal with such fundamental human themes as freedom individuality power justice and mercy Films examined include The Big House 1930 I Want to Live 1958 The Defiant Ones 1958 Cool Hand Luke 1967 Midnight Express 1978 Escape from Alcatraz 1979 The Shawshank Redemption 1994 and Starred Up 2013
