Diogenes Allen leads us to understand our love for families, for friends and for God with an equivalent fascination and intensity. Christianity recognizes that every person carries an inalienable value simply by existing. Love recognizes this value in other people and allows loved ones to exist freely in their own way. Partners in romantic love, even though they are hopelessly dependent on one another, must struggle to support the other's independence. As we struggle to realize our own dependence on others, meanwhile recognizing their inherent worth without us, our loves human and divine find new depth and passion. Open Doors for Preaching, Teaching, and Public Speaking Derl G.
