Love's Shadow Amber Coverdale Sumrall,1993 Stories and poems by women dealing with the end of love both heterosexual and lesbian and its emotional effects Love and Space in Contemporary African Diasporic Women's Writing Jennifer Leetsch,2021-07-16 This book sets out to investigate how contemporary African diasporic women writers respond to the imbalances pressures and crises of twenty first century globalization by querying the boundaries between two separate conceptual domains love and space The study breaks new ground by systematically bringing together critical love studies with research into the cultures of migration diaspora and refuge Examining a notable tendency among current black feminist writers poets and performers to insist on the affective dimension of world making the book ponders strategies of reconfiguring postcolonial discourses Indeed the analyses of literary works and intermedia performances by Chimamanda Adichie Zadie Smith Helen Oyeyemi Shailja Patel and Warsan Shire reveal an urge of moving beyond a familiar insistence on processes of alienation or rupture and towards a new reparative emphasis on connection and intimacy to imagine possible inhabitable worlds Heavenly Love? Gabriele Griffin,1993 Women Writing Back / Writing Women Back ,2010-05-25 Interest in early modern women writers is on the rise However familiarity with their works varies greatly from one country to another and resources to assess their historical significance remain insufficient Yet empirical evidence suggests that women writers who are no longer well known today played surprisingly varied roles in the literary field of early modern Europe The papers collected in this volume address early modern female authorship from the late Middle Ages to the end of the eighteenth century ranging geographically from Portugal to Russia and from Italy to Denmark In particular they focus on three themes the creation of female spaces or communities women s appropriation of existing or developing literary genres and transnational perspectives on early modern women s writings Contributors include Vanda Anast cio Bernadette Andrea M nica Bolufer Philiep Bossier Hans Bots Kathleen Garay Nina Geerdink Perry Gethner Elena Gretchanaia Ineke Janse Madeleine Jeay Anne Marie Mai Christine Mongenot Meredith Ray Ina Schabert and Lynn Lara Westwater Women Writing Back / Writing Women Back Anke Gilleir,Alicia A. Friendship's Shadows: Women's Friendship and the Politics of Betrayal in England, 1640-1705
Penelope Anderson, 2012-08-31 Penelope Anderson's original study changes our understanding both of the masculine Renaissance friendship tradition and of the private forms of women's friendship of the eighteenth century and after It uncovers the latent threat of betrayal lurking within politicized classical and humanist friendship showing its surprising resilience as a model for political obligation undone and remade Incorporating authors from Cicero to Abraham Cowley and Margaret Cavendish to Mary Astell the book focuses on two extraordinary women writers the royalist Katherine Philips and the republican Lucy Hutchinson And it explores the ways in which they appropriate the friendship tradition in order to address problems of conflicting allegiances in the English Civil Wars and Restoration As Penelope Anderson suggests their writings on friendship provide a new account of women's relation to public life organized through textual exchange rather than bodily reproduction

Joining the Resistance Carol Gilligan, 2013-05-22 Since the publication of her landmark book In a Different Voice Carol Gilligan has transformed the way we think about women and men and the relations between them It was the little book that started a revolution and with more than 800 000 copies in print it has become one of the most widely read and influential books ever written on gender and human development In her new book Joining the Resistance Carol Gilligan reflects on the evolution of her thinking and shows how her key ideas were interwoven with her own life experiences Her work began with the question of voice who is speaking to whom in what body telling what stories about which relationships By listening carefully she heard a voice that had been held in silence and in the process realized the extent to which we both women and men had been telling false stories about ourselves In her subsequent work Gilligan found that adolescent girls resisted pressures to disengage themselves from their honest voices and by joining their resistance she opened the way for the development of a more humane way of thinking about personal and political relationships For the central conviction of her work today and the central thesis of this book is that the requisites for love and the requisites for citizenship in a democratic society are one and the same Both voice and the desire to live in relationships inherent in our human nature together with the capacity to resist false authority Combining autobiographical reflection with an analysis of key questions about gender and human development this timely and highly readable book by one of America's greatest contemporary thinkers will appeal to a wide readership

The Shadows We Mistake for Love Tom Wayman, 2015-10-03 Living in the shadow of the Selkirk Mountains in southeastern BC the inhabitants of the Slokan Valley are tied together by magical and dramatic geography but also by an intricate web of shared history common needs and the deep and complex relationships that evolve in isolated locations where everyone is visible and there is no anonymity Tom Wayman's new short story collection The Shadows We Mistake for Love brings together loggers and environmentalists marijuana growers and small town lawyers back country skiers and homesteaders to overlap and coalesce into a brilliant portrait of rural life and place Beneath the valley's idyllic surface conflict and tension flourish among its inhabitants ranging from the intimate to the political In the title story the protagonist is drawn into an environmental activist group and a relationship with the group's charismatic leader but having a child quickly brings home the painful realities of the new life she's chosen Other stories depict the changes that are altering the social landscape of the valley from the ubiquity of the Internet to an influx of affluent new residents These developments emphasize the ways in which the sometimes rawer and more visible dramas of rural life reflect similar tensions in communities everywhere Magic After Midlife Collection: Books 1-3: A Humorous Paranormal Women's Fiction Deborah Wilde, 2023-01-01 Featuring a slow burn shifter romance and intelligent snark this clever mix of urban fantasy and mystery will take you on a wild ride Miriam Feldman is ditching her shapewear and letting her magic fly free When Miri was a teen her parents were murdered by magic assassins These days her aggressively normal existence has excellent medical insurance and won't get her daughter killed But when her bestie her ride or die gets tangled up with some vampires and goes missing Miriam unleashes the rare and powerful shadow magic she's kept hidden It's heady liberating and totally dangerous Now in a race against time to save her friend this single mom is descending into the spiderweb of the secret supernatural community where not knowing the rules is a fast track to a painful end Her guide A grumpy French wolf shifter with a particular set of skills the drive to protect Miri at all costs and the infuriating habit of constantly disagreeing with her He may mock her To Do lists but he's learned firsthand that her shadow magic packs a hell of a punch The tricky thing about shadows though is the past casts a long one and if Miri isn't careful those magic assassins will come back for the one who got away and she'll lose everything Fans of Jana DeLeon Robyn Peterman and KF Breene will adore Miri a smart older heroine with zero effs left to give Includes the titles Throwing Shade Made in the Shade A Shade Too Far Get reading now The History of British Women's Writing, 1945-1975 Clare Hanson, Susan Watkins, 2017-09-14 This volume reshapes our understanding of British literary culture from 1945-1975 by exploring the richness and diversity of women's writing of this period Essays by leading scholars reveal the range and intensity of women writers' engagement with post-war transformations including the founding of the Welfare State the gradual liberalization of attitudes to gender and sexuality and the reconfiguration of Britain and the empire in the context of the Cold War Attending closely to the politics of form the sixteen essays range across literary middlebrow and popular genres including espionage thrillers and historical fiction children's literature and science fiction as well as poetry drama and journalism They examine issues including realism and experimentalism education class and politics the emergence of second wave feminism responses to the Holocaust and mass migration and diaspora The volume offers an exciting reassessment of women's writing at a time of radical social change and rapid cultural expansion Writing the Voice of Pleasure A. Callahan, 2001-11-09 The Voice of Pleasure makes a persuasive and fascinating argument that the romantic couple of Western representation is not heterosexual Nor is it homosexual With insightful new readings of landmarks of Western culture from Tristan and Yseult to Seinfeld Callahan demonstrates that the illusion of heterosexuality is created by a male artist's assumption of a feminine voice to express desire Named the troubadour effect for the first time here this tradition of male femininity in romantic writing results in a cultural model of desire best described as heterosexuality without women The most compelling aspect of the book is its attention to the effect of this paradox on women writers Illuminating her argument with striking examples from the troubadour to Toni Morrison the author shows how women writers inscribe their vagabondage a term she coins to name the consequences of the troubadour effect for women s agency as both writers and lovers Love Shadows Catherine Lanigan,2014 There are five stages of grief and Luke Bosworth is stuck on anger Unable to move on after his wife s death he s struggling to make ends meet and be a good father to his children a fight he s afraid he s losing But then Sarah Jensen crashes into his life Dealing with the loss of her mother Sarah is a kindred spirit in grief And even though he doesn t always agree with her actions she renews hope for Luke and his kids Suddenly he s making plans for the future again But can he take the risk of falling in love a second time Diaspora Poetics and Homing in South Asian Women's Writing Shilpa Daithota Bhat,2018-03-14 This anthology of essays deliberates chiefly on the notion of locating home through the lens of the mythical idea of Trishanku implying in between space and homing in diaspora women s narratives associated with the South Asian region The idea of in between space has been used differently in various cultures but gesture prominently on the connotation of hanging between worlds Historically imperialism and the indentured grimit system triggered dispersal of labourers to the various colonies of the British Of course this was not the only cause of international migratory processes The partition of India and Pakistan led to large scale migration There was Punjabi migration to Canada Several Indians particularly the Gujaratis travelled to Africa for business reasons South Indians travelled to the Gulf for employment There were migrations to East Asian countries under the kangani system Again these were not the only reasons The process of demographic movement from South Asia has been complex due to innumerable push pull factors The subsequent generations of migrants included the twice thrice and likewise displaced members of the diaspora Racial denigration and Orientalist perceptions plagued their lives They belonged to various ethnicities and races inhabited marginalized spaces and strived to acculturate in the host society Complete cultural assimilation was not possible creating layered and hyphenated identities These intricate social processes resulted in amalgamation and cross pollination of cultures inter racial relationships and hybridization in all terrains of culture language music fashion cuisine and so on Situated in this matrix was the notion of Home a special personal space which an individual could feel as belonging to very strongly Nostalgia loss of home culture shock and interracial encounters problematized this discernment of belongingness and home These multifarious themes have been captured by women writers from the South Asian region and this book looks at the various aspects related to negotiating home in their narratives Under Mountain Shadows William D.

Frank,2024-02-29 From her world famous dude ranch in Washington state s Yakima County Kay Kershaw exerted tremendous influence on conservation efforts in the Pacific Northwest and tangentially on LGBTQ rights in the United States After gaining local renown in sports and aviation she established the ranch at Goose Prairie with her first partner Pat Kane a fraught undertaking in a region closely associated with the John Birch Society Operating under the guise of two spinsters Kershaw and her later life partner Isabelle Lynn guarded their privacy closely but local encroachment by the U S Forest Service and the timber industry forced them into the public arena as environmentalists In partnership with Supreme Court Justice William O Douglas Kershaw and Lynn spearheaded a decades long campaign to save the ancient forests and ecosystem of Washington s Cascade Range In the process Kay and Isabelle s devoted relationship proved a marked contrast to Justice Douglas own turbulent love life perhaps affecting his perception of the law and his precedent setting judicial opinion in Griswold v Connecticut 1965 which provided the basis for major LGBTQ Supreme Court decisions in the twenty first century as well as Roe v Wade in 1973 The Outlook ,1914 History of Scottish Women's Writing Douglas Gifford,2020-03-31 No detailed description available for A History of Scottish Women s Writing The Woman With the Wild-Grown Hair , The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Victorian Women's Writing Lesa Scholl,Emily Morris,2022-12-15 Since the late twentieth century there has been a strategic campaign to recover the impact of Victorian women writers in the field of English literature However with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty first century there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century a time that was intrinsically interdisciplinary in approach to scholarly writing and public intellectual engagement
