Davis,D. Johnson,2015-03-02 This volume presents new research and critical debates in African book history and brings together a range of disciplinary perspectives by leading scholars in the subject It includes case studies from across Africa ranging from third century manuscript traditions to twenty first century internet communications      Tears Of Rain - Ethnicity & Hist Van,2016-05-06 First published in 1992 This is a book about ethnicity among the Nkoya people in central western Zambia and about the historical background out of which that ethnicity is made It studies in detail the fascinating ways in which ethnicity both creates and feeds upon ethno history At the same time it assesses the possibility of reconstructing objective historical processes in that region since the sixteenth century on the basis primarily of one very extensive source Rev Johasaphat Malasha Shimunika s Likota lya Bankoya whose production as a compilation and processing of local oral traditions is intimately related to contemporary ethnicity But most of all this is a book about that fundamental and humble condition of scholarship reading      Borders, Sociocultural Encounters and Contestations Christopher Changwe Nshimbi,Inocent Moyo,Jussi P. Laine,2020-11-19 This book examines the enduring significance of borders in Southern Africa covering encounters between people ideas and matter and the new spatialities and transformations they generate in their historical social economic and cultural contexts Situated within debates on borders borderlands sub and regional integration this volume examines local grassroots and non state actors and their cross border economic and sociocultural encounters and contestations Particular attention is also paid on the role they play in the Southern African Development Community SADC region and its integration project in its multiplicity The interdisciplinary chapters address the diverse human activities relating to cross border economic and sociocultural encounters and contestations that are manifested through multiform and scalar interactions between or among grassroots actors involving engagements between grassroots actors and the state or its agencies and or to the broader arrangements that bear consequences of the first two upon regional integration By bringing these different at times contrasting forms of interaction under a holistic analysis this volume devises novel ways to understand the persistence and role of borders and their relation to new transnational and transcultural integrative phenomena at various levels extending from the nation state and the political to the cultural and social at the everyday level of border practices Scholars and students of African studies geography economics politics sociology and border studies will find this book useful      Subnationalism in Africa Joshua Forrest,2004 This examination of the politics of ethnicity and nation building in Africa stresses the trend towards subnationalist autonomy and away from a singular state centric system based on the Western model Forrest ranges across the continent to explore a variety of subnational movements      Ethnic Groups in Conflict, Updated Edition With a New Preface Donald L. Horowitz,2001-04-09 Drawing material from dozens of divided societies Donald L Horowitz constructs his theory of ethnic conflict relating ethnic affiliations to kinship and intergroup relations to the fear of domination A groundbreaking work when it was published in 1985 the book remains an original and powerfully argued comparative analysis of one of the most important forces in the contemporary world      Secessionism in African Politics Lotje de Vries,Pierre Englebert,Mareike Schomerus,2018-08-20 Secessionism perseveres as a complex political phenomenon in Africa yet often a more in depth analysis is overshadowed by the aspirational simplicity of pursuing a new state Using historical and contemporary approaches this edited volume offers the most exhaustive collection of empirical studies of African secessionism to date The respected expert contributors put salient and lesser known cases into comparative perspective covering Biafra Katanga Eritrea and South Sudan alongside Barotseland Cabinda and the Comoros among others Suggesting that African secessionism can be understood through the categories of aspiration grievance performance and disenchantment the book s analytical framework promises to be a building block for future studies of the topic      African Art and Agency in the Workshop Sidney Littlefield Kasfir,Till Förster,2013 The role of the workshop in the creation of African art is the subject of this revelatory book In the group setting of the workshop innovation and imitation collide artists share ideas and techniques and creative expression flourishes African Art and Agency in the Workshop examines the variety of workshops from those which are politically driven or tourist oriented to those based on historical patronage or allied to current artistic trends Fifteen lively essays explore the impact of the workshop on the production of artists such as Zimbabwean stone sculptors master potters from Cameroon wood carvers from Nigeria and others from across the continent      Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set KEVIN SHILLINGTON.,2005      Democracy in Zambia Owen Sichone,Bornwell C.
