Luca Giordano at the Museo Nacional Del Prado Andrés Ubeda de los Cobos, 2017 In spite of the huge number of paintings by this artist in the Prado Luca Giordano Naples 1634 1705 is seldom studied and is therefore little known to the public who often do not see beyond the cliché of his prodigious speed of execution The present volume sets out to remedy this lack of knowledge It begins with three introductory essays that set the Prado paintings in the context of Giordano's life survey the painter's critical fortunes from his own time to the present day and provide information on his Spanish period which lasted from 1692 to 1702 These initial texts also look into specific issues among them Giordano's relationship with his dealers and more controversial aspects such as the commercial strategies he used to disseminate his work The second part of the book the catalogue raisonné proper consists of entries for each of the paintings studied including information on their provenance condition restoration history related literature iconography visual sources and critical fortunes It features a total of 99 paintings executed on different supports and in various media which span all the stages of his production except the period following his return to Naples in 1702 This catalogue is the result of many years of thorough research conducted by its author Andr s beda de los Cobos Deputy Director for Conservation and Research at the Museo del Prado He is a specialist on Luca Giordano and has published various articles and books on the artist s works such as a study on the fresco of the Apotheosis of the Spanish Monarchy in the Cas n del Buen Retiro in 2008 a project which in a sense has been brought to a successful completion by this book The Ethics of Ornament in Early Modern Naples J.Nicholas Napoli,2017-07-05

The Carthusian monks at San Martino began a series of decorative campaigns in the 1580s that continued until 1757 transforming the church of their monastery the Certosa di San Martino into a jewel of marble revetment painting and sculpture The aesthetics of the church generate a jarring moral conflict few religious orders honored the ideals of poverty and simplicity so ardently yet decorated so sumptuously In this study Nick Napoli explores the terms of this conflict and of how it sought resolution amidst the social and economic realities and the political and religious culture of early modern Naples Napoli mines the documentary record of the decorative campaigns at San Martino revealing the rich testimony it provides relating to both the monks and the artists expectations of how practice and payment should transpire From these documents the author delivers insight into the ethical and economic foundations of artistic practice in early modern Naples The first English language study of a key monument in Naples and the first to situate the complex within the cultural history of the city The Ethics of Ornament in Early Modern Naples sheds new light on the Neapolitan baroque industries of art in the age before capitalism and the relation of art architecture and ornament European Drawings from the Collection of the Ackland Art Museum Ackland Art Museum,Carol C.
