Magill,2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Giovanni Battista Rubini and the Bel Canto Tenors Dan H. Marek,2013-06-06 Giovanni Battista Rubini 1794 1854 was a legendary tenor and the first 19th century non castrati male singer to become an international star of opera The previous two centuries had been the era of the castrati with tenors and basses relegated to character and supporting roles in the operas of their time Rubini stood apart because he not only matched the castrati in coloratura and pathos but he also had an extraordinarily high voice With Rubini's rise and in his wake several tenors came to sing roles written specifically for them by Rossini Bellini Donizetti and many other lesser known bel canto composers Signaling the end of the dominance of castrati on stage this period would last some forty years until the advent of grand opera Wagner and Verdi and the appearance of the first so called High C from the chest by Gilbert Louis Duprez in 1837 Since then the accepted tenor sound has followed the tradition epitomized by Enrico Caruso and in our own era Luciano Pavarotti and Plácido Domingo Many composers conductors and performers would come to regard bel canto dramatic operas as decorative and vapid until Maria Callas and Tulio Serafin demonstrated the heights this genre of opera could reach However opera directors and opera performers of late who have expressed an interest in reviving selected masterpieces from the bel canto tradition have found themselves confronted with the problem of locating tenors versed in the vocal techniques necessary to carry the high tessituras In Giovanni Battista Rubini and the Bel Canto Tenors History and Technique Dan H Marek explores the extraordinary life of Rubini in order to frame this special period in the history of opera and connect the technique of the castrati who were among Rubini's instructors Drawing on the work of Berton Coffin Marek offers long sought answers to the challenges presented by high tessitura of bel canto operas for tenors To further assist working singers Giovanni Battista Rubini and the Bel Canto Tenors includes over sixty pages of exercises written by Rubini himself before 1840 which Marek for the first time ever has adapted to acoustical phonetics Professional singers teachers and their students vocal coaches and opera conductors will find this work indispensable as the only English language work on high tessitura for tenor and soprano singing Music in the 20th Century (3 Vol Set) Dave DiMartino,2016-04-15 This is an examination of the crucial formative period of Chinese attitudes toward nuclear weapons the immediate post Hiroshima Nagasaki period and the Korean War It also provides an account of US actions and attitudes during this period and China's response

Opera as Anthropology Vlado Kotnik, 2016-09-23 This book contemplates the relationship between opera and anthropology It rests on the following central arguments on the one hand opera is quite a new and exotic topic for anthropologists while on the other anthropology is still perceived as an unusual approach to opera Both initial arguments are indicative of the current situation of the relationship between anthropological discipline and opera research The book introduces the work of anthropologists and ethnographers whose personal and professional affinity for opera has been explicated in their academic and biographical accounts Anthropological ethnological ethnographic and semiotic accounts of opera by Claude Lévi Strauss Michel Leiris William O Beeman Denis Laborde Paul Atkinson and Philippe Joseph Salazar establish that opera can be a pertinent object of anthropological interest ethnographic investigation cultural analysis and historical reflection By touching on opera not merely as a musical aesthetic or artistic category but as a social cultural historical and transnational phenomenon that over the last four centuries has significantly influenced and reflected the identity of Western culture and society this monograph suggests that opera and anthropology no longer need be alien to one another
